SCHOOL BOARD HELD A SESSION

President and Clerk Had Renewed a Contract With Ohio Valley Gas Company.

FUEL FOR OTHER BUILDINGS

The Board Is Getting Ready For the Winter Season In Plenty of Time.

SEVERAL BILLS WERE PAID

The board of education met in regular session at 8:20 last night, with Chairman Vodrey and Members Wells, Murphy, Smith, Knowles and Hill present.

The members had congregated in the superintendent's office before the meeting, where some private matters were discussed.

After the minutes had been approved, Clerk Hill brought up the matter of furnishing coal to those of the buildings where gas had not yet been added. It was developed that not much coal would be needed and the clerk was instructed to ask for bids from the various dealers.

The action of the president and clerk in renewing the contract with the Ohio Valley Gas company was ratified. These officials will also make a contract with the Ft. Pitt company to furnish gas for the East End buildings at the same figure.

The clerk then read the pay roll and when the bill of the American School Furniture company was reached, the question was raised as to whether the bill rendered did not include the putting up of the seats. As this work had been done at the expense of the board, the bill will be referred back for correction.

Mr. Hill reported that insurance to the amount of $15,000 had been taken on the Helana building. This does not include furnishings and the members were of the opinion that the property would stand $1,000 more. This will be arranged for at once.

The following bills were ordered paid:

Jacob Stein, supplies, $2.15; G. H. Owen & Co., premiums, $12; Harvey McHenry, carpenter work, $2,000; Bell Telephone company, $6.55; Eagle Hardware, repairs, $9; American Book company, books, $1,703.73; E. W. Hill, premiums, $37.50; Ohio Valley Gas company, gas, $12.90; A. J. Tiffany, supplies, $195; Wilson Stationery Co., supplies, $177.06; A. J. Moon, seed, 55 cents; Abrams & Stewart, insurance, $56.25; Robert Moore, coal, $52.20; Pennsylvania company, freight, $9.40; Hill & Hawkins, paper, $17.80; Adams Express Co., $2.75; Howard Chemical Co., $3; Slottington-Bangor Slate syndicate, blackboards, $294.04; Mrs. A. M. Davidson & Co., supplies, $26.75; John J. Hodson, supplies, $4.25; Ida M. Seiler, Pleasant Heights, water and cleaning, $4.80; Andy Rathay, hauling, $14.82; M. W. Elliott, $29.12; J. B. Martin, repairs, $4.10; Robert Walter, grading and repairing, $131.75; H. R. McVay, registers for teachers, $70.

On recommendation of Superintendent Rayman Miss Olive Pike was engaged as a regular teacher in No. 1 at a salary of $35 per month.

In connection with his report the superintendent stated that the teachers' classes for substitutes and beginners had been organized and were getting along nicely. He reported that the seniors were required to attend, as the experience proved of great value to them, especially in cases where they intended teaching.

Action was taken providing for an increase in the salary of Finley Cooley, janitor of the East End building, from $30 to $35 per month.

GIVEN JUDGMENT.

An Echo of an East Liverpool Assignment Appears in Court.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Judge S. J. Firestone was given judgment on a promissory note against G. E. Todd and others for $437.38. A mortgage on a 15-acre tract of land in Fairfield township will be foreclosed.

Todd formerly conducted a store in East Liverpool and made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors.

DISMISSED THE CASE.

A Wellsville Action That Has Been Hanging Fire for Two Years is Ended.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Judge Hole dismissed the case of Frank Geisse against D. T. Lawson at the cost of Geisse.

Two years ago he was defendant in an action in Squire MacKenzie's court, Wellsville, in which Lawson had recovered judgment against him, when he appealed the case to this court.

Authorized to Sell.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—William H. DeRhodes holds a judgment for $687 against William S. Newhouse, of Signal, and he was authorized to sell the property attached in the case. The amount is due on account, and as Newhouse has absconded the sale will be made.

ITALIANS ANNOY THE RESIDENTS

Some of the Gang That Is Working In the Calcutta Road Are Begging.

HAVE ENTERED SEVERAL HOUSES

And Frightened the Occupants and Only Leave When They Are Put Out.

COMPLAINTS MAY BE ENTERED

The residents of upper Avondale street have been annoyed a great deal lately by the Italians, who are employed on the Calcutta road improvements.

The have been begging for something to eat and wear from everyone in the vicinity, and yesterday several of them made a complete canvas of the houses on the east side of Avondale, and were so persistent and impudent at some of the houses they had to be forced to leave the premises.

On last Thursday, just at dark Mrs. Benjamin Reddick was sitting at the supper table with the children, her husband not having come from work, when she was attracted by a noise in the front room. She went to the room and was startled to find a very repulsive looking man standing in the middle of the room examining the interior critically. The lady asked the man's business, but all she could get from him was the word "bread."

She said she had no bread and offered him some biscuit, which she had prepared for supper. These he refused, and the lady was compelled finally to call in a neighbor in order to get rid of the unwelcome visitor. She appealed to George Smart, who succeeded in ejecting the Italian, for such it proved to be, in a remarkably short space of time.

The same evening two Italians were discovered in one of the upper rooms of the residence of Mrs. W. H. Brooks, on Avondale street, and had evidently been there for some time. Mrs. Brooks was somewhat alarmed at the intruders, as they were rough looking and their appearance and actions indicated they were out for plunder. The callers were loath to depart and it was necessary to threaten them with arrest before they would leave.

No complaints have been made to the police, although a great many of the residents in that vicinity claim they have had sufficient provocation, and if the annoyance is continued some arrests will undoubtedly be the outcome.

AT WELLSVILLE

Governor George K. Nash Will Deliver an Address in That City on Oct. 20.

On Saturday, October 20, Governor George K. Nash and Hon. J. K. Richards will address a Republican meeting in Wellsville.

AN ACCIDENT.

Janitor F. S. Albright Ran a Knife Into His Arm Yesterday Afternoon.

Janitor F. S. Albright, of the Central school building, is very busy these days, and while erecting seats at the building yesterday morning between 4 and 5 o'clock he met with a painful accident. Mr. Albright was using a very sharp pen knife in his work and the knife slipped and penetrated his left arm just above the wrist, cutting a large gash.

SUSTAINED CASTON.

KNOWLES' DAMAGE CASE IS NOW OUT OF COURT.

He Sued the City to Recover $1,200 Because Avondale Street Grade Was Changed.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Judge Hole sustained a demurrer which has knocked out the case of George Knowles against the city of East Liverpool.

Knowles filed one of the actions to recover $1,200 by reason of the change of the grade on Avondale street, East Liverpool, when City Solicitor Gaston filed a demurrer to the action, claiming that the petition did not contain fact sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

ALLIANCE FAIR

It Will Be Far the Best Ever Given in That City.

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Oct. 10, 11 and 12, the Alliance Fair company will hold one of the biggest industrial, agricultural and specialty fairs at Alliance that has ever been given in that part of the state.

Fine racing will be on the program every afternoon, and a novelty of the exhibition will be the night displays under the glare of hundreds of electric lights.

It will be a great exhibit of the best that is to be had. Of course you'll be there.

A SALE.

Salvation Army Will Sell a Large Number of Goods at the Barracks This Evening.

The Salvation Army still have on hand a large number of articles from the baker, the butcher, the notion store, the grocer, the tailor, and in fact goods from almost every line of business.

The Harvest Festival is still on and the goods will be sold this evening. It is hoped a large number of people will go to the barracks and make purchases.

The army have not quite reached the $120 mark, but hope to this evening.

THE LECTURE COURSE.

The Program is an Unusually Strong One, Sure to Delight Lovers of Education.

The High School Lecture course has been fully arranged for the coming season. Prof. Rayman and his assistants have builded well in their selections, and the public at large can have the assurance of rich and rare educational treats in store for them. The high school has succeeded in making their yearly entertainments a source of much pleasure to our people, and the outlook is that the present series will add to their popularity.

—Frank Ikirt left this morning for Cleveland, where he will enter the medical department of the Western Reserve university. Mr. Ikirt will graduate this year.

MRS. BELLE LEITH IS NOT INSANE

After Receiving Testimony of Physicians Judge Boone Would Not Send Her to Asylum.

ON THE SUBJECT OF RELIGION

She Is Mono-Maniac and Has Peculiar Ideas In Regard to Her Duty as a Wife.

HUSBAND WANTS A DIVORCE

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Mrs. Belle Leith was brought here late yesterday charged with being insane. The affidavit was made by Thomas J. Leith, the husband, who seemed anxious that she be incarcerated in an insane asylum.

Drs. Parke, of Wellsville, and Marquis, of Lisbon, examined the patient and were unanimous in the statement that Mrs. Leith was not a fit subject for the insane asylum.

According to their evidence the patient is a mono-maniac on the subject of religion, and during the past 12 years has entertained peculiar ideas regarding her duty as a wife.

Judge Boone would not recommend that Mrs. Leith be sent to an asylum, but said that she should have pleasant surroundings away from the influences of the religious society she has been connected with, as it was thought she had sufficient reasoning power to resist any revelation toward self-destruction.

Thomas Leith, the husband of the patient, has a divorce action in common pleas court and some time ago was ordered to pay $50 alimony and $5 each week.

TWO ARRESTS.

M'DERMOTT WAS GAY AT HIS BOARDING HOUSE.

Pat O'Rourke Filled Up With Bad Whisky And Officer Mahony Ran Him In.

Patrick O'Rourke fell into the hands of Officer Mahony last night and was conveyed to the city jail in the patrol. It cost him just $2 and costs.

Two of the parties who were in the saloon raid have appeared at city hall and paid their costs, amounting to $9.60. The balance of the parties will in this evening.

WANTED TO ENTER SUIT.

Harry Martin Desired to Have Officers Wood and Dawson Arrested for Trespass.

Sunday evening Harry Martin called at the home of Justice McCarron and wanted to file charges of trespass against Officers Dawson and Wood. He was very anxious to have the officers arrested and said they had appeared at his house without his consent.

He didn't have security for the costs and his case wasn't taken by the squire.

DISMISSED THE CASE.

A Wellsville Action That Has Been Hanging Fire for Two Years is Ended.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Judge Hole dismissed the case of Frank Geisse against D. T. Lawson at the cost of Geisse.

Two years ago he was defendant in an action in Squire MacKenzie's court, Wellsville, in which Lawson had recovered judgment against him, when he appealed the case to this court.

Authorized to Sell.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—William H. DeRhodes holds a judgment for $687 against William S. Newhouse, of Signal, and he was authorized to sell the property attached in the case. The amount is due on account, and as Newhouse has absconded the sale will be made.

ITALIANS ANNOY THE RESIDENTS

Some of the Gang That Is Working in the Calcutta Road Are Begging.

HAVE ENTERED SEVERAL HOUSES

And Frightened the Occupants and Only Leave When They Are Put Out.

COMPLAINTS MAY BE ENTERED

The residents of upper Avondale street have been annoyed a great deal lately by the Italians, who are employed on the Calcutta road improvements.

They have been begging for something to eat and wear from everyone in the vicinity, and yesterday several of them made a complete canvas of the houses on the east side of Avondale, and were so persistent and impudent at some of the houses they had to be forced to leave the premises.

On last Thursday, just at dark Mrs. Benjamin Reddick was sitting at the supper table with the children, her husband not having come from work, when she was attracted by a noise in the front room. She went to the room and was startled to find a very repulsive looking man standing in the middle of the room examining the interior critically. The lady asked the man's business, but all she could get from him was the word "bread."

She said she had no bread and offered him some biscuit, which she had prepared for supper. These he refused, and the lady was compelled finally to call in a neighbor in order to get rid of the unwelcome visitor. She appealed to George Smart, who succeeded in ejecting the Italian, for such it proved to be, in a remarkably short space of time.

The same evening two Italians were discovered in one of the upper rooms of the residence of Mrs. W. H. Brooks, on Avondale street, and had evidently been there for some time. Mrs. Brooks was somewhat alarmed at the intruders, as they were rough looking and their appearance and actions indicated they were out for plunder. The callers were loath to depart and it was necessary to threaten them with arrest before they would leave.

No complaints have been made to the police, although a great many of the residents in that vicinity claim they have had sufficient provocation, and if the annoyance is continued some arrests will undoubtedly be the outcome.

MRS. BELLE LEITH IS NOT INSANE

After Receiving Testimony of Physicians Judge Boone Would Not Send Her to Asylum.

ON THE SUBJECT OF RELIGION

She Is Mono-Maniac and Has Peculiar Ideas in Regard to Her Duty as a Wife.

HUSBAND WANTS A DIVORCE

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Mrs. Belle Leith was brought here late yesterday charged with being insane. The affidavit was made by Thomas J. Leith, the husband, who seemed anxious that she be incarcerated in an insane asylum.

Drs. Parke, of Wellsville, and Marquis, of Lisbon, examined the patient and were unanimous in the statement that Mrs. Leith was not a fit subject for the insane asylum.

According to their evidence the patient is a mono-maniac on the subject of religion, and during the past 12 years has entertained peculiar ideas regarding her duty as a wife.

Judge Boone would not recommend that Mrs. Leith be sent to an asylum, but said that she should have pleasant surroundings away from the influences of the religious society she has been connected with, as it was thought she had sufficient reasoning power to resist any revelation toward self-destruction.

Thomas Leith, the husband of the patient, has a divorce action in common pleas court and some time ago was ordered to pay $50 alimony and $5 each week.

STARTLED CLEVELAND

A Sensation In the Bribery Investigation.

A CHICAGOAN A STAR WITNESS.

Attorney For Windy City Firm Quoted City Officials as Authority For Charge That the Gamewell Company Paid to Have Its System Installed.

Cleveland, Oct. 2.—The star witness in the council bribery investigation was W. H. Boyd, the attorney who represents the Chicago Municipal Signal company, and the testimony he gave startled even those who were sanguine that if money had been paid to secure the contract for the police signal system for the Gamewell company, the fact would not be exposed.

From Mr. Boyd's testimony it became evident that he suspected crookedness in the council almost from the time the bids for the contract for the police signal system were opened, and that he watched the proceedings much closer than anyone on the outside was aware of. He named the councilmen whom he declared he had reasons for believing always stood together in voting, among them being President Steur.

The greatest share of the information which Mr. Boyd declared he obtained on the alleged crooked transactions, came, he says, from one of the councilmen alleged to have been bribed. In his testimony, he charged that the Gamewell company promised to pay $400 per vote and that when the goods were delivered it cut off the men who were bought with $200 each. At this, Mr. Boyd testified, some of the councilmen were indignant and were seeking to "throw down" the Gamewell company on the contract for the fire telegraph alarm system when it came up for approval. The witness also testified that Howard H. Burgess, the clerk of the council, had told him that money had been paid to councilmen.

"Mr. Burgess told me," said Mr. Boyd, "I am getting nothing out of this myself, but you know I am always on the watch out for the boys, and if there is anything I can get for them I go after it."

He further testified that Councilman O'Donnell had said to him that Howard had told him that Directors Barrett and Hyman were getting a "rake off" of $8,000 on the contract and that he didn't like them to "hog" everything. Also that Howard was going after the contract with the stuff and that if the Chicago Municipal Signal company wanted anything it would have to go after it with the cash.

PORTO RICONS IN POLITICS.

One Party Endorses Bryan—Other McKinley Administration.

San Juan de Porto Rico, Oct. 2.—The Federal party at its convention at Caguas passed resolutions affiliating itself with the Democratic party in the United States. Cablegrams from William Jennings Bryan and James K. Jones, chairman of the national Democratic committee, urging harmony, were read. Munoz Rivera made a speech, in which he opposed the administration on the ground that the Foraker bill is unsatisfactory and that the Porto Ricans desire a more independent form of government. The session will last several days and the delegates will name a commissioner for congress.

A Republican massmeeting at San Juan has endorsed the administration and nominated candidates for the house of delegates.

Tucson, Ariz., Oct. 2.—An old man named Hiram George has reached here from Mexico, where he claims he was robbed of $10,000 in Mexican money and wandered on the desert for 14 days, by Jim Murphy, his cook, who was afterward shot by the Mexican authorities. He says he was on his way to Galveston, where his wife and several children were lost in the flood. He says his money and mules are at Bachachua, Mexico.

TO CONTINUE MISSION WORK

A Group at Peking Determined to Re-open Schools There—Some to Take a Furlough.

Boston, Oct. 2.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions has received a message from the Rev. F. M. Chapin, one of its missionaries in Peking, disclosing the plans of the group of missionaries there. It is proposed to reopen the Bridgeman School for Girls in Peking, either in the city or in Tien Tsin.

The North China college, which was destroyed in Tung Che, will probably be reopened in Peking. Minister Conger has given assurances that he will try to secure the use of two or more large compounds, which have been used by the Boxers and hence are liable to confiscation, for the use of the American board of missionaries. Eight of the missionaries, chiefly women, feel that they need a furlough and it are prepared to remain.

TO NEGOTIATE PEACE.

Secretary Hay Announced Receiving Notification of Appointment of Five Chinese.

Washington, Oct. 2.—Secretary Hay has returned to Washington very much improved in health by his vacation in the New Hampshire hills. He has resumed charge of the affairs of the department. During the whole of his absence he has been in close touch with every move that has been made in the Chinese situation. He has been consulted in the preparation of every note that has been issued, and every telegram of any importance that has been sent. He is now well and strong enough to resume this work, and Dr. Hill, who, while acting secretary, has been suffering to some extent from malarial attacks, will take a short vacation. The secretary of state signaled his return by making public two telegrams which he has received. The first is from Minister Conger, showing that China has appointed five officers to conduct negotiations for peace, including Yung Lu, who is in command of the northern Chinese army. The dispatch is dated Peking, September 27, by way of Taku, September 30, and says: "Have received notice today from Prince Ching that he, Earl Li, Yung-Lu, and Viceroy Tin Kun Yi and Chang Chip Tung will act in concert in negotiations for peace. Yung-Lu is in the interior; Li Hung Chang is at Tien Tsin."

The other dispatch is from Consul McWade, at Canton, and confirms the report sent Saturday by Consul General Goodnow about the degradation of Prince Tuan and other officials. It is dated October 1, and says: "Decree just issued. Emperor blames ministers for whole trouble. Orders Tuan, Kangli and other officials degraded and punished by imperial court. Emperor holds Tuan and others entirely responsible for bloodshed."

General Chaffee sends the following to the war department:

"Taku, Sept. 30. "Adjutant General, Washington: "The health of the command is good. Have accepted the invitation of the hospital ship Maine to transfer some convalescents to the hospital ship Relief, now repairing at Nagasaki. "Chaffee."

The following dispatch also was received from General Chaffee: "Received September SHRDLU U "Received Sept. 30, 1900, via Taku. "Adjutant General, Washington: "September 29, 30 cabled from Tien Tsin. Received your numbers 42 and 43. The Ninth Infantry, Third squadron of Sixth cavalry and light battery will constitute legation guard. Shall endeavor to get all supplies to Tong Chow before water fails. "Chaffee."

Hongkong, Oct. 2.—The British gunboat Robin has shelled the village of Luk-Lao. Luk-Lao is on the West river and the shelling was done in retaliation for the inhabitants firing on the British vessel. The ringleaders afterward were captured and flogged.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 2.—The Official Messenger today states that reports of the annexation of Manchuria by Russia are devoid of foundation. Paris, Oct. 2.—The French consul general at Shanghai, under date of September 29, telegraphs that he has been informed by the governor of Sent-Che-Li that, through the intermediation of Sheng (the administrator of telegraphs and railroads), the missionaries and engineers at Theng-Ting-Fu were safe September 23; that the military and civil authorities had taken precautions to protect all the missionaries and that the Belgian mission at Ning-Tian-Lung was safe.

American Bankers to Meet.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 2.—The American Bankers' association will meet in annual session here today.

TO ADVANCE WAGES.

Wyoming Operators Agree on an Offer.

ANTHRACITE STRIKE STILL ON.

Employees of the Philadelphia and Reading Company Did Not Respond, by Returning to Work, to the Proposal of Their Employers.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 2.—Coal operators at their meeting this afternoon decided to offer striking miners of the Wyoming valley a net advance of 10 per cent on wages heretofore paid and to take up with their employees any grievances which they may have; powder will be sold to miners at $1.50 a keg, but the difference between this rate and the old rate of $2.75 a keg shall be taken into account in figuring the net 10 per cent advance.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 2.—Although the labor leaders positively said they did not fear a break in the ranks of the anthracite coal strikers, they were nevertheless pleased to learn that the 10 per cent advance granted by the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron company in the Schuylkill valley was totally ignored by the striking mine workers. It was predicted that many of the strikers would return to work under the belief that the 10 per cent increase would be the limit of the operators' concessions, but the unanimity of the men in deciding to stand out for a further advance caused many remarks of surprise.

It was expected in some quarters that this would bring a turning point in the strike, but nothing came to the surface that would lead to any indication of the strike nearing an end. Since the operators began to hold conferences President Mitchell is receiving more information than formerly and giving out less. That he knows more about the situation than he cares to tell is hardly doubted by any one. He has practically admitted that he receives advices from New York as to the doings of the operators. There still is a lack of anything tangible on which to base the report of an immediate settlement. President Mitchell continues to deny that he knows anything about it.

The strike situation in the Lehigh Valley showed a change in favor of the men. Several hundred men quit work at the Calvin Pardee mines at Lattimer, as the result of persuasion on the part of the 400 marching strikers, and at Oneida and Cranberry the coal companies lost additional men. No collieries were closed down in this region.

ELECTIONS IN CONNECTICUT.

For Purpose of Choosing Town Officials and Deciding Liquor License.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 2.—It was "town meeting" day in Connecticut, 162 of the 168 towns in the state holding "the little town" elections for the purgovernments and settling for the coming year the liquor license.

Towns and cities not participating in these little political contests are Hartford, New Haven, Bridgeport, Ansonia, Derby and Naugatuck.

Returns received from 138 towns of the 162 voting showed Republican victories in 103 towns and Democratic success in 35. If the missing towns remain firm in their respective columns of last year, it would mean a total of 119 towns Republican and 43 Democratic, a net Republican loss of six towns.

The vote throughout the state was as a rule, light.

Oregon.

In the date of admission Oregon is one of the oldest states beyond the Mississippi, entering the Union in 1859. It was the first new state to have the political honor of naming the vice presidential candidate (Joseph Lane) for one of the great parties in the first year of its statehood.

STARTLED CLEVELAND

A Sensation In the Bribery Investigation.

A CHICAGOAN A STAR WITNESS.

Attorney For Windy City Firm Quoted City Officials as Authority For Charge That the Gamewell Company Paid to Have Its System Installed.

Cleveland, Oct. 2.—The star witness in the council bribery investigation was W. H. Boyd, the attorney who represents the Chicago Municipal Signal company, and the testimony he gave startled even those who were sanguine that if money had been paid to secure the contract for the police signal system for the Gamewell company, the fact would not be exposed.

From Mr. Boyd's testimony it became evident that he suspected crookedness in the council almost from the time the bids for the contract for the police signal system were opened, and that he watched the proceedings much closer than anyone on the outside was aware of. He named the councilmen whom he declared he had reasons for believing always stood together in voting, among them being President Steur.

The greatest share of the information which Mr. Boyd declared he obtained on the alleged crooked transactions, came, he says, from one of the councilmen alleged to have been bribed. In his testimony, he charged that the Gamewell company promised to pay $400 per vote and that when the goods were delivered it cut off the men who were bought with $200 each. At this, Mr. Boyd testified, some of the councilmen were indignant and were seeking to "throw down" the Gamewell company on the contract for the fire telegraph alarm system when it came up for approval. The witness also testified that Howard H. Burgess, the clerk of the council, had told him that money had been paid to councilmen.

"Mr. Burgess told me," said Mr. Boyd, "I am getting nothing out of this myself, but you know I am always on the watch out for the boys, and if there is anything I can get for them I go after it."

He further testified that Councilman O'Donnell had said to him that Howard had told him that Directors Barrett and Hyman were getting a "rake off" of $8,000 on the contract and that he didn't like them to "hog" everything. Also that Howard was going after the contract with the stuff and that if the Chicago Municipal Signal company wanted anything it would have to go after it with the cash.

PORTO RICOS IN POLITICS.

One Party Endorses Bryan—Other McKinley Administration.

San Juan de Porto Rico, Oct. 2.—The Federal party at its convention at Caguas passed resolutions affiliating itself with the Democratic party in the United States. Cablegrams from William Jennings Bryan and James K. Jones, chairman of the national Democratic committee, urging harmony, were read. Munoz Rivera made a speech, in which he opposed the administration on the ground that the Foraker bill is unsatisfactory and that the Porto Ricans desire a more independent form of government. The session will last several days and the delegates will name a commissioner for congress.

A Republican massmeeting at San Juan has endorsed the administration and nominated candidates for the house of delegates.

ATTACKED BY AN ITALIAN.

Another Beaver County Girl the Victim Miss Ludwig's Condition.

Monaca, Oct. 2.—Miss Edie White, while crossing the Ohio river bridge on her wheel was accosted by an Italian who pulled her from her wheel and attempted to embrace her. Miss White struggled vigorously and managed to escape.

Beaver county is being scourged for Mitchell, the negro who several days ago assaulted Miss Margaret Ludwig, the Remington school teacher. He is believed to be in hiding near here. Miss Ludwig is still in a critical condition, being unable to sleep.

Robbed by His Cook, Who Was Shot.

Tucson, Ariz., Oct. 2.—An old man named Hiram George has reached here from Mexico, where he claims he was robbed of $10,000 in Mexican money and wandered on the desert for 14 days, by Jim Murphy, his cook, who was afterward shot by the Mexican authorities. He says he was on his way to Galveston, where his wife and several children were lost in the flood. He says his money and mules are at Bachachua, Mexico.

TO CONTINUE MISSION WORK

A Group at Peking Determined to Re-open Schools There—Some to Take a Furlough.

Boston, Oct. 2.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions has received a message from the Rev. F. M. Chapin, one of its missionaries in Peking, disclosing the plans of the group of missionaries there. It is proposed to reopen the Bridgeman School for Girls in Peking, either in the city or in Tien Tsin.

The North China college, which was destroyed in Tung Che, will probably be reopened in Peking. Minister Conger has given assurances that he will try to secure the use of two or more large compounds, which have been used by the Boxers and hence are liable to confiscation, for the use of the American board of missionaries. Eight of the missionaries, chiefly women, feel that they need a furlough and it are prepared to remain.

TO NEGOTIATE PEACE.

Secretary Hay Announced Receiving Notification of Appointment of Five Chinese.

Washington, Oct. 2.—Secretary Hay has returned to Washington very much improved in health by his vacation in the New Hampshire hills. He has resumed charge of the affairs of the department. During the whole of his absence he has been in close touch with every move that has been made in the Chinese situation. He has been consulted in the preparation of every note that has been issued, and every telegram of any importance that has been sent. He is now well and strong enough to resume this work, and Dr. Hill, who, while acting secretary, has been suffering to some extent from malarial attacks, will take a short vacation. The secretary of state signaled his return by making public two telegrams which he has received. The first is from Minister Conger, showing that China has appointed five officers to conduct negotiations for peace, including Yung Lu, who is in command of the northern Chinese army. The dispatch is dated Peking, September 27, by way of Taku, September 30, and says: "Have received notice today from Prince Ching that he, Earl Li, Yung-Lu, and Viceroy Tin Kun Yi and Chang Chip Tung will act in concert in negotiations for peace. Yung-Lu is in the interior; Li Hung Chang is at Tien Tsin."

The other dispatch is from Consul McWade, at Canton, and confirms the report sent Saturday by Consul General Goodnow about the degradation of Prince Tuan and other officials. It is dated October 1, and says: "Decree just issued. Emperor blames ministers for whole trouble. Orders Tuan, Kangi and other officials degraded and punished by imperial court. Emperor holds Tuan and others entirely responsible for bloodshed."

General Chaffee sends the following to the war department:

"Taku, Sept. 30.
"Adjutant General, Washington:
"The health of the command is good. Have accepted the invitation of the hospital ship Maine to transfer some convalescents to the hospital ship Relief, now repairing at Nagasaki. "Chaffee."

The following dispatch also was received from General Chaffee:
"Received September SHRDLU U
"Received Sept. 30, 1900, via Taku.
"Adjutant General, Washington:
"September 29, 30 cabled from Tien Tsin. Received your numbers 42 and 43. The Ninth Infantry, Third squadron of Sixth cavalry and light battery will constitute legation guard. Shall endeavor to get all supplies to Tong Chow before water fails.
"Chaffee."

Hongkong, Oct. 2.—The British gunboat Robin has shelled the village of Luk-Lao.
Luk-Lao is on the West river and the shelling was done in retaliation for the inhabitants firing on the British vessel. The ringleaders afterward were captured and flogged.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 2.—The Official Messenger today states that reports of the annexation of Manchuria by Russia are devoid of foundation.

Paris, Oct. 2.—The French consul general at Shanghai, under date of September 29, telegraphs that he has been informed by the governor of Sent-Che-Li that, through the intermediation of Sheng (the administrator of telegraphs and railroads), the missionaries and engineers at Theng-Ting-Fu were safe September 23; that the military and civil authorities had taken precautions to protect all the missionaries and that the Belgian mission at Ning-Tian-Lung was safe.

American Bankers to Meet.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 2.—The American Bankers' association will meet in annual session here today.

TO ADVANCE WAGES.

Wyoming Operators Agree on an Offer.

ANTHRACITE STRIKE STILL ON.

Employees of the Philadelphia and Reading Company Did Not Respond, by Returning to Work, to the Proposal of Their Employers.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 2.—Coal operators at their meeting this afternoon decided to offer striking miners of the Wyoming valley a net advance of 10 per cent on wages heretofore paid and to take up with their employees any grievances which they may have; powder will be sold to miners at $1.50 a keg, but the difference between this rate and the old rate of $2.75 a keg shall be taken into account in figuring the net 10 per cent advance.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 2.—Although the labor leaders positively said they did not fear a break in the ranks of the anthracite coal strikers, they were nevertheless pleased to learn that the 10 per cent advance granted by the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron company in the Schuylkill valley was totally ignored by the striking mine workers. It was predicted that many of the strikers would return to work under the belief that the 10 per cent increase would be the limit of the operators' concessions, but the unanimity of the men in deciding to stand out for a further advance caused many remarks of surprise.

It was expected in some quarters that this would bring a turning point in the strike, but nothing came to the surface that would lead to any indication of the strike nearing an end. Since the operators began to hold conferences President Mitchell is receiving more information than formerly and giving out less. That he knows more about the situation than he cares to tell is hardly doubted by any one. He has practically admitted that he receives advices from New York as to the doings of the operators. There still is a lack of anything tangible on which to base the report of an immediate settlement. President Mitchell continues to deny that he knows anything about it.

The strike situation in the Lehigh Valley showed a change in favor of the men. Several hundred men quit work at the Calvin Pardee mines at Lattimer, as the result of persuasion on the part of the 400 marching strikers, and at Oneida and Cranberry the coal companies lost additional men. No collieries were closed down in this region.

ELECTIONS IN CONNECTICUT.

For Purpose of Choosing Town Officials and Deciding Liquor License.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 2.—It was "town meeting" day in Connecticut, 162 of the 168 towns in the state holding "the little town" elections for the governments and settling for the coming year the liquor license.

Towns and cities not participating in these little political contests are Hartford, New Haven, Bridgeport, Ansonia, Derby and Naugatuck.

Returns received from 138 towns of the 162 voting showed Republican victories in 103 towns and Democratic success in 35. If the missing towns remain firm in their respective columns of last year, it would mean a total of 119 towns Republican and 43 Democratic, a net Republican loss of six towns.

The vote throughout the state was as a rule, light.

Oregon.

In the date of admission Oregon is one of the oldest states beyond the Mississippi, entering the Union in 1859. It was the first new state to have the political honor of naming the vice presidential candidate (Joseph Lane) for one of the great parties in the first year of its statehood.

PENSIONS TO SOLDIERS

Records of the Two Parties Fully Discussed.

ONE HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS

Added to Amount of Pensions Paid the Soldiers of the Union by Act of 1890. Hoke Smith and H. Clay Evans Contrasted in Work of Pension Bureau.

More than $500,000,000 is a magnificent amount to be paid out in less than 10 years under a single pension act, additional to what was paid during the same time under the regular pension acts preceding it. This is the money that the pensioners of the United States have had under the act of June 27, 1890, passed by a Republican congress, and signed by a Republican president, and so liberally administered by the succeeding Republican administrations, that there are now 420,912 soldiers and sailors, and 130,266 widows receiving its benefits, who would not be entitled under the general pension law. This is only a single evidence of the persistent care of the Republican party for the pensioners.

Not one Republican is on record, with even one adverse vote, upon the entire 14 important pension measures voted upon by congress since the civil war; while 1,068 Republicans voted in favor of these different measures. On the other hand, during the same time and upon the same bills, more than 60 per cent of all the Democrats in congress, or 648, are shown by the Congressional Record, to have voted against these same pension bills, and less than 40 per cent of the Democrats, or only 417, to have voted for them. This contrast has been continuous between the parties in their actual votes in congress since the great war inflicted such vast suffering upon our immense armies and navies, and made the enormous pension list an indispensable part of the price paid by the country for secession and treason, caused by the Southern Democracy.

In 20 years of Republican rule, neither Presidents Lincoln, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, Harrison nor McKinley ever vetoed a single pension bill. In his entire eight years General Grant, the great soldier, withheld his signature only five times from private pension bills. Contrast this record of 28 Republican years with the only eight years the Democrats have had since Buchanan—for during his two terms President Grover Cleveland vetoed 524 pension bills. Cleveland's administration acted in complete keeping with his own warfare upon the pension list.

Hoke Smithism means to the American soldier persistent warfare upon his welfare, and in that antagonism Mr. Smith, as is now clearly known, only obeyed orders. In consequence of it, however, during Cleveland's first year of his second term, 68½ per cent of all pension claims adjudicated were rejected, or 84,562 out of 123,647. During the first two years of this Democratic administration the notorious Hoke Smith board of revision dropped 8,694 pensioners from the rolls, and reduced 23,702 pensions, the vast majority for bitterly unjust reasons, as was evident in every community where cases occurred of this kind.

Cleveland's pension commissioner reported for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, the issuance of 96,337 pension certificates, and the rejection of 103,355 claims of all kinds. These are his own official figures. How magnificently they verify and attest the depth and strength of the Democratic love for the Union soldiers!

Contrast, with these rejections of pension claims, the dropping of pensioners and the decrease in their rates of pension, by the last Democratic administration, the fact that from April 1, 1897, to June 30, 1900, under McKinley's commissioner of pensions, Hon. Henry Clay Evans of Tennessee, more than 16,000 names of pensioners dropped by previous administrations were restored to the rolls, and are now receiving $2,100,000 annually. During the past fiscal year alone 4,352 such names were restored to the rolls. This contrast is even more strongly shown by the fact that while in Cleveland's three years—1894, 1895 and 1896—only 118,644 original pensions were allowed during the entire three years; in McKinley's three corresponding years the number was 22,000 greater.

In Cleveland's last year only 33,749 original claims were filed, for the pensioners had got tired of being thrown down. But when McKinley came in the claims that had been held back for four years were rushed into the bureau, and in one year 61,613 original claims, and 226,051 claims in all, were piled in upon Commissioner Evans. In his first three months he disposed of 30,538 claims, or half as many as the Democratic commissioner got rid of in nine months preceding. With all this increase in claims, and all the business growing out of the Spanish war, the pension bureau under McKinley has gained upon its work by 200,000 cases within the past two years so that applicants stand a better chance than ever before of having their matters disposed of promptly.

In the fiscal year just ended the pension payments were near $140,000,000 while in Cleveland's first year the pension payments were $17,000,000 less than in Harrison's last year just before it.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1900, there were allowed 40,637 new pensions alone. Despite a death rate of about 35,000 soldier pensioners every year, the total number of pensioners is now about a round 1,000,000, or 25,000 increase under McKinley and Evans over the number that Cleveland left upon the rolls.

The pension payments last year were over $20,000,000 more than in either of Grant's first or second terms and about as much as the entire four years under President Hayes—facts that show the growth of the pension benefaction. The total pension payments since 1866 will exceed $2,400,000,000, an amount without parallel in the world's history.

In addition to all that has been done, the present Republican congress enacted three important amendments to the pension laws. That of April 18, 1900, provides pensions for the Spanish war, even though the beneficiaries may have been southern soldiers, thus practically confirming in the laws the truth that the Union is at last fully reunited. The act of April 23, 1900, makes ample additional provision for pensioners of the war with Mexico. The act of May 9, 1900, known as "the Grand Army bill," makes even more liberal the great Republican law of June 27, 1890, and is expected to add thousands to the pension rolls. Section third of this act, upon the recommendation of Commissioner Evans, approved both by Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock and President McKinley, is alone expected to add to the benefits of soldiers' widows about $3,500,000 every year, and to include in its generosity 35,000 to 40,000 widows of our soldiers.

Upon these records the Republican party rightfully rests its claim upon the generosity and support of every soldier with a particle of gratitude in his heart, and every friend of such soldier, particularly when considered in contrast with what the Democratic party when in power has done for the soldiers, and its continued obstruction to every endeavor to secure full justice from the United States for its defenders.

AS TO POLYGAMY.

When the Mormon church, in its fight for "the twin relic," polygamy, contended that congress violated the constitution by its hostile legislation, because congress had no right to impair the safeguards which protect the civil rights of every citizen, whether in state or territory, the supreme court held that the power of congress over the territories was absolute; that congress could make valid acts of the territory void and void acts valid. It is doctrine so clearly defined by the highest court that Bryan opposes. Is he ignorant or willful?

Four years ago even Bryan would not have expected that this country would be able to lend money to the world; in fact, he declared that if he was defeated the people would be getting poorer and poorer. He was defeated all right, and now the American loan of millions to the English government has been followed by one of $20,000,000 to the German government, and that by $10,000,000 to Sweden.

TO POPULAR VOTE.

Quay Willing to Submit Senatorship.

TO ELIMINATE THE BIG CITIES.

Says if Opponents Fear Fraud, Why Not Leave Out Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. Republicans Willing to Accept a Guffey Election Law.

West Chester, Pa., Oct. 2.—Ex-U. S. Senator Quay made the first of what is to be a series of speeches throughout the state of Pennsylvania in favor of the election of McKinley and Roosevelt and those candidates for the state legislature favorable to that faction of the Republican party recognizing Mr. Quay as its leader. His speech was made before a large crowd and was listened to attentively.

Mr. Quay's speech was largely devoted to state issues and he severely criticised the efforts of the Democrats and anti-Quay Republicans to effect the success of a fusion movement.

Referring to the United States senatorship Mr. Quay said he was not a candidate in the ordinary acceptance of the term. "The Republican state convention," he said, "insisted upon the presentation of my candidacy to the people and I submitted with some reluctance to their judgment. To me that high office is no longer attractive. Its duties have occupied the last 12 years of my life, and they were exceedingly vexatious and laborious. My career, as you all know, has not been exactly pleasant sailing upon summer seas, and advancing years admonish me that if peace and recreation are to ever find me, in the course of nature they must come very soon."

"If the choice of the Republicans of Pennsylvania should fall upon another their judgment will be greeted by me, if not with satisfaction, at least with relief. If the issue could be presented to a popular vote of the Republicans of the state at the ensuing election, that course would tend very largely to subdue the ill temper now manifest in certain distinguished quarters and would serve as a lightning rod for our Republican local legislative and congressional tickets."

Mr. Quay, in speaking of submitting his name to a popular vote, said of those opposed to him: "If they are fearful of fraud in the great centers of population the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny may be eliminated from the canvass. This seems to me to be a fair proposition, approximating the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people."

Touching the subject of a substitution for the present law, he said: "Without pretending to control results I believe I am able to say that Mr. Guffey, who initiated the proposition of a new law, may frame any fair statute which is a manifest improvement over the present one and the Republican organization will aid its passage. We will repeal for him the Baker law and substitute for it the Guffey law and the legislative action will, I have no doubt, be approved by the executive who sits beside me."

"Mr. Guffey will, however, tolerate only fusion to accomplish this reform. The results anticipated he gave to the public in a carefully prepared interview. He expects to reduce the McKinley majority very largely in the state; to increase the Democratic representation in the legislature from 87 to 100; to hold all the congressional districts now represented by Democrats; to procure a ballot reform law and an apportionment which will largely increase the present legitimate Democratic representation in congress and to defeat the election of Mr. Quay to the senate."

In conclusion Mr. Quay made an appeal for the election of McKinley and Roosevelt, expressing the opinion that "the best state of the union will give the best majority in all the union for the re-election of the best president God has vouchsafed to the union since the death of Lincoln."

Governor Stone followed Senator Quay in an eloquent endorsement of the McKinley administration and the candidacy of Mr. Quay for United States senator. He criticised the fusion movement and urged loyal support to all caucus nominees.

BRYAN SPOKE IN MINNESOTA.

He and Governor Lind Celebrated Their Wedding Anniversaries.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 2.—Mr. Bryan traversed what are known as the Pine Barrens and the Scrub Oak portion of Minnesota, reaching the agricultural part of the state north of this city. He made the first speech at West Superior. He immediately crossed the river to Duluth and starting with an hour speech there he made speeches at eight other places on the way, which, together with the speech at Duluth and Superior and those made last night in this city, made an even dozen speeches for the day. Four of the speeches averaged an hour in duration and the remaining eight 15 minutes each, making about six hours of speechmaking all told for the day. He was accompanied throughout the day by Governor Lind and others.

It was the sixteenth anniversary of Mr. Bryan's marriage, and, by a strange coincidence, the twenty-first anniversary of Governor Lind's marriage. They celebrated with a Poland water dinner.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 2.—The auditorium in which Mr. Bryan spoke here was crowded to the very dome. It is a large building said to hold 8,000 people. Before proceeding with his speech Mr. Bryan was presented with a life of Abraham Lincoln by F. L. McGhee, a colored man, on behalf of the Colored Men's league.

In responding to this presentation Mr. Bryan eulogized Lincoln and congratulated Mr. McGhee upon the advancement made by his people and said he was glad to know that so many of them are determined to study public questions and vote according to their convictions.

TWO MESSAGES

From the Far East to the American People.

Hon. John Barrett, former minister of the United States to Siam, is now making speeches in the Republican campaign. In the opening one in New York city, he riveted the attention of his immense audience by two messages which he brought from the far east. The first of these is from the King of Siam, who said:

"Go back to the American people and tell them that I, an Asiatic monarch, speaking almost the same language as the Filipinos, having the same blood in my veins, and knowing the hopes and impulses of the people of Asia—go back and tell them that I welcome America to the Philippines and the far east, as a great and good power."

The Siamese monarch is one of the greatest statesmen of the orient, the ruler over millions of people, whose kingdom is as prosperous as is Japan. Important as this message is to the American people, the second one brought by Mr. Barrett surpasses it, because of the mournful interest which surrounds it. It is a message from a Nebraska colonel, but not one like Colonel Bryan. It is from the dead Colonel Stotsenburg. It was his regiment which was on picket duty when the Filipino outbreak of February, 1899, occurred. It was one of his men, a resident of Lincoln, who fired the first shot when the insurgents tried to break through our lines. Colonel Stotsenburg led a charge against the rebels and fell mortally wounded. As he lay there, the death dew on his pale brow, realizing that the end had come, he said:

"Yes, boys, you can tell the American people that I, as colonel in command, knowing all the incidents, say that the responsibility for this trouble does not rest on the American army nor on the American government. Tell them that I said with dying breath, that we were deliberately fired on by enemies of the United States, and that there should be no end of the conflict except their unconditional surrender."

Contrast these words of the dying Nebraska hero with those of that other Nebraska colonel, whose military experience was in a camp, and who declares that if he should be elected president of the United States, he would summon congress in extra session to offer what would be a virtual surrender to these rebels in arms against the American government.

Democrats Won't Oppose Republicans.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 2.—The Democratic state committee decided not to oppose the election of the Republican candidate for chief justice and associate justice.

To Confer About Armor.

Washington, Oct. 2.—It is expected that representatives of the various armor producing concerns will be here today to confer with Secretary Long concerning the armor required for the warships in course of construction.

Superior Court Reconvened.

Philadelphia, Oct. 2.—The superior court reconvened in this city for winter and fall term. No opinions or judgments were handed down.

TWO MESSAGES

From the Far East to the American People.

Hon. John Barrett, former minister of the United States to Siam, is now making speeches in the Republican campaign. In the opening one in New York city, he riveted the attention of his immense audience by two messages which he brought from the far east. The first of these is from the King of Siam, who said:

"Go back to the American people and tell them that I, an Asiatic monarch, speaking almost the same language as the Filipinos, having the same blood in my veins, and knowing the hopes and impulses of the people of Asia—go back and tell them that I welcome America to the Philippines and the far east, as a great and good power."

The Siamese monarch is one of the greatest statesmen of the orient, the ruler over millions of people, whose kingdom is as prosperous as is Japan. Important as this message is to the American people, the second one brought by Mr. Barrett surpasses it, because of the mournful interest which surrounds it. It is a message from a Nebraska colonel, but not one like Colonel Stotsenburg. It was his regiment which was on picket duty when the Filipino outbreak of February, 1899, occurred. It was one of his men, a resident of Lincoln, who fired the first shot when the insurgents tried to break through our lines. Colonel Stotsenburg led a charge against the rebels and fell mortally wounded. As he lay there, the death dew on his pale brow, realizing that the end had come, he said:

"Yes, boys, you can tell the American people that I, as colonel in command, knowing all the incidents, say that the responsibility for this trouble does not rest on the American army nor on the American government. Tell them that I said with dying breath, that we were deliberately fired on by enemies of the United States, and that there should be no end of the conflict except their unconditional surrender."

Contrast these words of the dying Nebraska hero with those of that other Nebraska colonel, whose military experience was in a camp, and who declares that if he should be elected president of the United States, he would summon congress in extra session to offer what would be a virtual surrender to these rebels in arms against the American government.

PENSIONS TO SOLDIERS

Records of the Two Parties Fully Discussed.

ONE HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS

Added to Amount of Pensions Paid the soldiers of the Union by Act of 1890. Hoke Smith and H. Clay Evans Contrasted in Work of Pension Bureau.

More than $500,000,000 is a magnificent amount to be paid out in less than 10 years under a single pension act, additional to what was paid during the same time under the regular pension acts preceding it. This is the money that the pensioners of the United States have had under the act of June 27, 1890, passed by a Republican congress, and signed by a Republican president, and so liberally administered by the succeeding Republican administrations, that there are now 420,912 soldiers and sailors, and 130,266 widows receiving its benefits, who would not be entitled under the general pension law. This is only a single evidence of the persistent care of the Republican party for the pensioners.

Not one Republican is on record, with even one adverse vote, upon the entire 14 important pension measures voted upon by congress since the civil war; while 1,068 Republicans voted in favor of these different measures. On the other hand, during the same time and upon the same bills, more than 60 per cent of all the Democrats in congress, or 648, are shown by the Congressional Record, to have voted against these same pension bills, and less than 40 per cent of the Democrats, or only 417, to have voted for them. This contrast has been continuous between the parties in their actual votes in congress since the great war inflicted such vast suffering upon our immense armies and navies, and made the enormous pension list an indispensable part of the price paid by the country for secession and treason, caused by the Southern Democracy.

In 20 years of Republican rule, neither Presidents Lincoln, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, Harrison nor McKinley ever vetoed a single pension bill. In his entire eight years General Grant, the great soldier, withheld his signature only five times from private pension bills. Contrast this record of 28 Republican years with the only eight years the Democrats have had since Buchanan—for during his two terms President Grover Cleveland vetoed 524 pension bills. Cleveland's administration acted in complete keeping with his own warfare upon the pension list.

Hoke Smithism means to the American soldier persistent warfare upon his welfare, and in that antagonism Mr. Smith, as is now clearly known, only obeyed orders. In consequence of it, however, during Cleveland's first year of his second term, 68½ per cent of all pension claims adjudicated were rejected, or 84,562 out of 123,647. During the first two years of this Democratic administration the notorious Hoke Smith board of revision dropped 8,694 pensioners from the rolls, and reduced 23,702 pensions, the vast majority for bitterly unjust reasons, as was evident in every community where cases occurred of this kind.

Cleveland's pension commissioner reported for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, the issuance of 96,337 pension certificates, and the rejection of 103,355 claims of all kinds. These are his own official figures. How magnificently they verify and attest the depth and strength of the Democratic love for the Union soldiers!

Contrast, with these rejections of pension claims, the dropping of pensioners and the decrease in their rates of pension, by the last Democratic administration, the fact that from April 1, 1897, to June 30, 1900, under McKinley's commissioner of pensions, Hon. Henry Clay Evans of Tennessee, more than 16,000 names of pensioners dropped by previous administrations were restored to the rolls, and are now receiving $2,100,000 annually. During the past fiscal year alone 4,352 such names were restored to the rolls. This contrast is even more strongly shown by the fact that while in Cleveland's three years—1894, 1895 and 1896—only 118,644 original pensions were allowed during the entire three years; in McKinley's three corresponding years years the number was 22,000 greater.

In Cleveland's last year only 33,749 original claims were filed, for the pensioners had got tired of being thrown down. But when McKinley came in the claims that had been held back for four years were rushed into the bureau, and in one year 61,613 original claims, and 226,051 claims in all, were piled in upon Commissioner Evans. In his first three months he disposed of 30,538 claims, or half as many as the Democratic commissioner got rid of in nine months preceding. With all this increase in claims, and all the business growing out of the Spanish war, the pension bureau under McKinley has gained upon its work by 200,000 cases within the past two years so that applicants stand a better chance than ever before of having their matters disposed of promptly.

In the fiscal year just ended the pension payments were near $140,000,000 while in Cleveland's first year the pension payments were $17,000,000 less than in Harrison's last year just before it.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1900, there were allowed 40,637 new pensions alone. Despite a death rate of about 35,000 soldier pensioners every year, the total number of pensioners is now about a round 1,000,000, or 25,000 increase under McKinley and Evans over the number that Cleveland left upon the rolls.

The pension payments last year were over $20,000,000 more than in either of Grant's first or second terms and about as much as the entire four years under President Hayes—facts that show the growth of the pension benefaction. The total pension payments since 1866 will exceed $2,400,000,000, an amount without parallel in the world's history.

In addition to all that has been done, the present Republican congress enacted three important amendments to the pension laws. That of April 18, 1900, provides pensions for the Spanish war, even though the beneficiaries may have been southern soldiers, thus practically confirming in the laws the truth that the Union is at last fully reunited. The act of April 23, 1900, makes ample additional provision for pensioners of the war with Mexico. The act of May 9, 1900, known as "the Grand Army bill," makes even more liberal the great Republican law of June 27, 1890, and is expected to add thousands to the pension rolls. Section third of this act, upon the recommendation of Commissioner Evans, approved both by Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock and President McKinley, is alone expected to add to the benefits of soldiers' widows about $3,500,000 every year, and to include in its generosity 35,000 to 40,000 widows of our soldiers.

Upon these records the Republican party rightfully rests its claim upon the generosity and support of every soldier with a particle of gratitude in his heart, and every friend of such soldier, particularly when considered in contrast with what the Democratic party when in power has done for the soldiers, and its continued obstruction to every endeavor to secure full justice from the United States for its defenders.

AS TO POLYGAMY.

When the Mormon church, in its fight for "the twin relic," polygamy, contended that congress violated the constitution by its hostile legislation, because congress had no right to impair the safeguards which protect the civil rights of every citizen, whether in state or territory, the supreme court held that the power of congress over the territories was absolute; that congress could make valid acts of the territory void and void acts valid. It is doctrine so clearly defined by the highest court that Bryan opposes. Is he ignorant or willful?

Four years ago even Bryan would not have expected that this country would be able to lend money to the world; in fact, he declared that if he was defeated the people would be getting poorer and poorer. He was defeated all right, and now the American loan of millions to the English government has been followed by one of $20,000,000 to the German government, and that by $10,000,000 to Sweden.

TO POPULAR VOTE.

Quay Willing to Submit Senatorship.

TO ELIMINATE THE BIG CITIES.

Says if Opponents Fear Fraud, Why Not Leave Out Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. Republicans Willing to Accept a Guffey Election Law.

West Chester, Pa., Oct. 2.—Ex-U. S. Senator Quay made the first of what is to be a series of speeches throughout the state of Pennsylvania in favor of the election of McKinley and Roosevelt and those candidates for the state legislature favorable to that faction of the Republican party recognizing Mr. Quay as its leader. His speech was made before a large crowd and was listened to attentively.

Mr. Quay's speech was largely devoted to state issues and he severely criticised the efforts of the Democrats and anti-Quay Republicans to effect the success of a fusion movement.

Referring to the United States senatorship Mr. Quay said he was not a candidate in the ordinary acceptance of the term. "The Republican state convention," he said, "insisted upon the presentation of my candidacy to the people and I submitted with some reluctance to their judgment. To me that high office is no longer attractive. Its duties have occupied the last 12 years of my life, and they were exceedingly vexatious and laborious. My career, as you all know, has not been exactly pleasant sailing upon summer seas, and advancing years admonish me that if peace and recreation are to ever find me, in the course of nature they must come very soon."

"If the choice of the Republicans of Pennsylvania should fall upon another their judgment will be greeted by me, if not with satisfaction, at least with relief. If the issue could be presented to a popular vote of the Republicans of the state at the ensuing election, that course would tend very largely to subdue the ill temper now manifest in certain distinguished quarters and would serve as a lightning rod for our Republican local legislative and congressional tickets."

Mr. Quay, in speaking of submitting his name to a popular vote, said of those opposed to him: "If they are fearful of fraud in the great centers of population the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny may be eliminated from the canvass. This seems to me to be a fair proposition, approximating the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people."

Touching the subject of a substitution for the present law, he said: "Without pretending to control results I believe I am able to say that Mr. Guffey, who initiated the proposition of a new law, may frame any fair statute which is a manifest improvement over the present one and the Republican organization will aid its passage. We will repeal for him the Baker law and substitute for it the Guffey law and the legislative action will, I have no doubt, be approved by the executive who sits beside me."

"Mr. Guffey will, however, tolerate only fusion to accomplish this reform. The results anticipated he gave to the public in a carefully prepared interview. He expects to reduce the McKinley majority very largely in the state; to increase the Democratic representation in the legislature from 87 to 100; to hold all the congressional districts now represented by Democrats; to procure a ballot reform law and an apportionment which will largely increase the present legitimate Democratic representation in congress and to defeat the election of Mr. Quay to the senate."

In conclusion Mr. Quay made an appeal for the election of McKinley and Roosevelt, expressing the opinion that "the best state of the union will give the best majority in all the union for the re-election of the best president God has vouchsafed to the union since the death of Lincoln."

Governor Stone followed Senator Quay in an eloquent endorsement of the McKinley administration and the candidacy of Mr. Quay for United States senator. He criticised the fusion movement and urged loyal support to all caucus nominees.

BRYAN SPOKE IN MINNESOTA.

He and Governor Lind Celebrated Their Wedding Anniversaries.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 2.—Mr. Bryan traversed what are known as the Pine Barrens and the Scrub Oak portion of Minnesota, reaching the agricultural part of the state north of this city. He made the first speech at West Superior. He immediately crossed the river to Duluth and starting with an hour speech there he made speeches at eight other places on the way, which, together with the speech at Duluth and Superior and those made last night in this city, made an even dozen speeches for the day. Four of the speeches averaged an hour in duration and the remaining eight 15 minutes each, making about six hours of speechmaking all told for the day. He was accompanied throughout the day by Governor Lind and others.

It was the sixteenth anniversary of Mr. Bryan's marriage, and, by a strange coincidence, the twenty-first anniversary of Governor Lind's marriage. They celebrated with a Poland water dinner.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 2.—The auditorium in which Mr. Bryan spoke here was crowded to the very dome. It is a large building said to hold 8,000 people. Before proceeding with his speech Mr. Bryan was presented with a life of Abraham Lincoln by F. L. McGhee, a colored man, on behalf of the Colored Men's league.

In responding to this presentation Mr. Bryan eulogized Lincoln and congratulated Mr. McGhee upon the advancement made by his people and said he was glad to know that so many of them are determined to study public questions and vote according to their convictions.

TWO MESSAGES

From the Far East to the American People.

Hon. John Barrett, former minister of the United States to Siam, is now making speeches in the Republican campaign. In the opening one in New York city, he riveted the attention of his immense audience by two messages which he brought from the far east. The first of these is from the King of Siam, who said:

"Go back to the American people and tell them that I, an Asiatic monarch, speaking almost the same language as the Filipinos, having the same blood in my veins, and knowing the hopes and impulses of the people of Asia—go back and tell them that I welcome America to the Philippines and the far east, as a great and good power."

The Siamese monarch is one of the greatest statesmen of the orient, the ruler over millions of people, whose kingdom is as prosperous as is Japan. Important as this message is to the American people, the second one brought by Mr. Barrett surpasses it, because of the mournful interest which surrounds it. It is a message from a Nebraska colonel, but not one like Colonel Bryan. It is from the dead Colonel Stotsenburg. It was his regiment which was on picket duty when the Filipino outbreak of February, 1899, occurred. It was one of his men, a resident of Lincoln, who fired the first shot when the insurgents tried to break through our lines. Colonel Stotsenburg led a charge against the rebels and fell mortally wounded. As he lay there, the death dew on his pale brow, realizing that the end had come, he said:

"Yes, boys, you can tell the American people that I, as colonel in command, knowing all the incidents, say that the responsibility for this trouble does not rest on the American army nor on the American government. Tell them that I said with dying breath, that we were deliberately fired on by enemies of the United States, and that there should be no end of the conflict except their unconditional surrender."

Contrast these words of the dying Nebraska hero with those of that other Nebraska colonel, whose military experience was in a camp, and who declares that if he should be elected president of the United States, he would summon congress in extra session to offer what would be a virtual surrender to these rebels in arms against the American government.

BRYAN ON GOLD STANDARD.

"If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."

This language was used by Hon. William Jennings Bryan in a speech at Knoxville, Tenn., on September 16, 1896.

CONNECTICUT.

The electoral vote of Connecticut will be counted for the Republican party. Democratic claims have gone glimmering. "Pile up the votes," is the order of the day. Bury Bryanism and disaster so deep that they will never again be resurrected in the political arena.

NEBRASKA.

Bryan is badly scared regarding Nebraska. The farmers and the rural districts are going back on the agent of the silver trust. The agriculturalists love good money and good prices for their products. The Republicans have good grounds for believing that they can carry Bryan's home state. Let the good work go on.

AMONG THE MINERS.

Mitchell, the leader of the miners in the anthracite region, says: "It is the operators turn now, and I am waiting for them to move. Great interests are at stake. In the name of humanity, every effort at conciliation and a speedy settlement of the strike should be made by workmen and employers. Arbitration should settle the struggle."

THE SABBATH DAY.

The command has come to keep it holy, and from a commander who will not be trifled with. The man who disobeys may imagine that he can do so with impunity and that punishment will not ensue. He may apparently prosper for years; but punishment will come to the transgressor, here and hereafter. There is no escape; there can be no hedging, no dodging. "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, saith the Lord."

LOAFING.

Again let us commend Chief T. V. Thompson for the order forbidding "loafing and loitering and the use of profanity in public places." It is a much needed feature, and its rigid enforcement will make many friends for our officials. Our conservative and respectable citizens have been terribly annoyed by toughs, roughs and blackguards along this line. If you have any desire to be classed with this tough element, count yourself in and walk chalk with the rest of the bums.

READ BARRETT.

Read the speech of Minister Barrett as to the life and character of Don Emilio Aguinaldo, and as to who is responsible for the war with the insurgents in the Philippines. The article appears in today's issue. Barrett knows what he is talking about. He talks the Filipino almost as well as he does the English language, lived for long years among the Asiatics, knows their characteristics fully, was a personal acquaintance of General Lawton and Colonel Stotzenberg, served in the field with them and can speak from the book of experience. Read his speech.

THE FULL DINNER PAIL.

William Jennings Bryan attempts to answer the "full dinner pail" argument of the Republican administration, and meekly says that it is an insult to the toiler to say that his brain and heart can be reached and controlled through his stomach or appetite. And so it is an insult to the toiler to have stated to him that he has a sure thing for years to come in the way of home comforts for wife and children, while he daily wends his way to his occupation with a dinner pail filled with the good things of life, the use of which will surely give him comfort, strength, brawn, and the power to do his work in a comparatively easy manner. Say, Billy Buncombe Bryan, are you aware of the fact that you are talking through your hat? Do you know that, so far as the food or pail question is concerned, the Republican party has given and promises to give a dinner pail filled with the substantial and luxuries of this life, while the Democratic party has promised the same and then doled out the thinnest kind of shadow soup?

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1900.

This Date In History—Oct. 2.
322 B. C.—Aristotle, Greek philosopher and tutor of Alexander the Great, died at Chalcis.
1460—Richard III of England born at Fotheringay castle; killed at Bosworth.
1700—Charles II of Spain signed his famous will, bequeathing his dominions to a French prince,
which caused the dreadful war of the Spanish succession.
1795—Chevalier d'Eon, whose sex was disputed during his career as a diplomat and who dressed as a woman the last 33 years of his life, was born in Burgundy; died 1810 and was then proved to have been a man.
1796—Major John Andre, adjutant general of the British forces in America, hanged as a spy.
1798—The erratic General Charles Lee, English, but a soldier in the American army, died in Philadelphia; born in Cheshire 1731.
1843—Dr. William Ellery Channing, noted American divine, died in Bennington, Vt.; born 1780.
1892—Ernest Renan died in Paris; born 1823.
1897—General Neal Dow, a noted Federal war veteran and the father of the Prohibition movement, died at Portland, Me.; born 1804.
1900—Cyclone devastated the coasts of South Carolina and Georgia.

BRYAN ON GOLD STANDARD.
"If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than
I am able to get rid of it."
This language was used by Hon.
William Jennings Bryan in a speech at Knoxville, Tenn., on September 16, 1896.

CONNECTICUT.
The electoral vote of Connecticut will be counted for the Republican party. Democratic claims have gone glimmering. "Pile up the votes," is the order of the day. Bury Bryanism and disaster so deep that they will never again be resurrected in the political arena.

NEBRASKA.
Bryan is badly scared regarding Nebraska. The farmers and the rural districts are going back on the agent of the silver trust. The agriculturalists love good money and good prices for their products. The Republicans have good grounds for believing that they can carry Bryan's home state.
Let the good work go on.

AMONG THE MINERS.
Mitchell, the leader of the miners in the anthracite region, says: "It is the operators turn now, and I am waiting for them to move. Great interests are at stake. In the name of humanity, every effort at conciliation and a speedy settlement of the strike should be made by workmen and employers. Arbitration should settle the struggle."

THE SABBATH DAY.
The command has come to keep it holy, and from a commander who will not be trifled with. The man who disobeys may imagine that he can do so with impunity and that punishment will not ensue. He may apparently prosper for years; but punishment will come to the transgressor, here and hereafter. There is no escape; there can be no hedging, no dodging. "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, saith the Lord."

LOAFING.
Again let us commend Chief T. V.
Thompson for the order forbidding "loafing and loitering and the use of profanity in public places." It is a much needed feature, and its rigid enforcement will make many friends for our officials. Our conservative and respectable citizens have been terribly annoyed by toughs, roughs and blackguards along this line. If you have any desire to be classed with this tough element, count yourself in and walk chalk with the rest of the bums.

READ BARRETT.
Read the speech of Minister Barrett as to the life and character of Don Emilio Aguinaldo, and as to who is responsible for the war with the insurgents in the Philippines. The article appears in today's issue. Barrett knows what he is talking about. He talks the Filipino almost as well as he does the English language, lived for long years among the Asiatics, knows their characteristics fully, was a personal acquaintance of General
Lawton and Colonel Stotzenberg, served in the field with them and can speak from the book of experience.
Read his speech.

THE FULL DINNER PAIL.
William Jennings Bryan attempts to answer the "full dinner pail" argument of the Republican administration, and meekly says that it is an insult to the toiler to say that his brain and heart can be reached and controlled through his stomach or appetite. And so it is an insult to the toiler to have stated to him that he has a sure thing for years to come in the way of home comforts for wife and children, while he daily wends his way to his occupation with a dinner pail filled with the good things of life, the use of which will surely give him comfort, strength, brawn, and the power to do his work in a comparatively easy manner. Say, Billy Buncombe Bryan, are you aware of the fact that you are talking through your hat? Do you know that, so far as the food or pail question is concerned, the Republican party has given and promises to give a dinner pail filled with the substantial and luxuries of this life, while the Democratic party has promised the same and then doled out the thinnest kind of shadow soup?

BRYAN ON GOLD STANDARD.

"If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."

This language was used by Hon. William Jennings Bryan in a speech at Knoxville, Tenn., on September 16, 1896.

CONNECTICUT.

The electoral vote of Connecticut will be counted for the Republican party. Democratic claims have gone glimmering. "Pile up the votes," is the order of the day. Bury Bryanism and disaster so deep that they will never again be resurrected in the political arena.

NEBRASKA.

Bryan is badly scared regarding Nebraska. The farmers and the rural districts are going back on the agent of the silver trust. The agriculturalists love good money and good prices for their products. The Republicans have good grounds for believing that they can carry Bryan's home state. Let the good work go on.

AMONG THE MINERS.

Read the speech of Minister Barrett as to the life and character of Don Emilio Aguinaldo, and as to who is responsible for the war with the insurgents in the Philippines. The article appears in today's issue. Barrett knows what he is talking about. He talks the Filipino almost as well as he does the English language, lived for long years among the Asiatics, knows their characteristics fully, was a personal acquaintance of General Layton and Colonel Stotzenberg, served in the field with them and can speak from the book of experience. Read his speech.

THE FULL DINNER PAIL.

William Jennings Bryan attempts to answer the "full dinner pail" argument of the Republican administration, and meekly says that it is an insult to the toiler to say that his brain and heart can be reached and controlled through his stomach or appetite. And so it is an insult to the toiler to have stated to him that he has a sure thing for years to come in the way of home comforts for wife and children, while he daily wends his way to his occupation with a dinner pail filled with the good things of life, the use of which will surely give him comfort, strength, brawn, and the power to do his work in a comparatively easy manner. Say, Billy Buncombe Bryan, are you aware of the fact that you are talking through your hat? Do you know that, so far as the food or pail question is concerned, the Republican party has given and promises to give a dinner pail filled with the substantial and luxuries of this life, while the Democratic party has promised the same and then doled out the thinnest kind of shadow soup?

Judge Hole Granted a Number of Divorces After Hearing the Sad Stories.

MRS. LAUBSCHER WAS ABUSED

The Court Not Only Gave Her a Divorce but Restored Her Maiden Name.

THREE PETITIONS GRANTED

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Judge Hole opened a session of divorce court yesterday afternoon and for several hours was occupied in listening to the domestic troubles of those in court.

Mrs. Edna B. Laubscher, of Wells-ville, told a story of cruelty to the court on the part of her husband, Lewis Laubscher. As Miss Edna Menough she was married to Lewis Laubscher in March, 1896, and had one child, which died at the age of nine months. She says that within a month after her marriage she discovered that he was a professional gambler and when she would question him after he had stayed out all night he would strike her and kick her, and that on one occasion, a short time before her child was born, he came home drunk and, dragging her from her bed, he kicked her downstairs. On one occasion, she says, he kicked her from her bed and knocked her down, when she lay unconscious for two hours.

Mrs. Laubscher claims that her life was in danger while living with him, and she left him last February and has since been living in Cleveland. The divorce was granted and her maiden name restored.

Mrs. Elizabeth I. Campbell, of Elkton, was given a divorce from Thomas M. Campbell and the control of her two minor children. They were married in 1887 and the grounds of divorce were drinking and neglect of duty.

Gus Knight, of Negley, was legally separated from Nora Knight and will have charge of two minor children. The Knights were married in 1891 in Wampum, Pa., but the wife soon grew tired of domestic duty and would neglect her family and remain away from home for days at a time. On one occasion she returned in an intoxicated condition.

Mrs. Annie M. Herbert was divorced from Coss T. Herbert. Mrs. Herbert now lives in East Liverpool and supports a seven-year-old daughter by working in the pottery. She was married in 1891 in Salineville and was abandoned a few years later in Lisbon.

TO DISSOLVE.

The Hulings Electrical Company, of This City, File an Application in Court.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—The directors of the Huling Electrical company, which was incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing electrical goods and fixtures, made application this morning to dissolve the partnership.

The business of the company has been wholly abandoned during the past four years, and as they own no property and owe no debts, the parties interested want the corporation abandoned.

On account of holiday, Joseph Bros.' store will be closed all day Wednesday.

EAST END. GOT DAMAGES.

McDaniel Sued for $3 And Received the Sum of 50 Cents.

The case of Henry McDaniel versus Oscar Whitseigle, in which the defendant was alleged to have stolen some apples, for which damages in the sum of $3 was asked, was tried in the court of Justice Carman yesterday and the decision was reserved until 6 o'clock last evening. When that time arrived the justice rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for punitive damage in the sum of 50 cents and the costs in the case.

HOODLUMS

Made Themselves Obnoxious at the Dance and Were Ejected by Officer Hamilton.

The Harris benefit dance held at Columbian park last evening was a complete success, both socially and financially. Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion excepting the conduct of a few drunken hoodlums from the city who annoyed the crowd until Officer Hamilton appeared. They were hustled out on the hillside, where they remained the entire evening.

LOAFERS

Will Receive Their Just Deserts at the Hands of the East End Police.

Folts is prominently identified with Chicago parties who have been investigating the West Point coal fields during the past year.

He asks that a franchise be given authorizing them to maintain the road for 25 years.

A SMALL FIRE AT HARKER'S POTTERY.

The roof on the new kiln shed at the Harker pottery caught fire this afternoon and the department was called out. The blaze was extinguished by the workmen before it did much damage.

Unique in Their Alignment.

The highest of the Tennessee mountains is the Unaka range, and its highest peak is Rattlesnake, the giant that stands above the Cherokee Indian reservation over 7,000 feet. Twenty-two peaks measure about 6,000 feet. A remarkable fact is that some of these peaks, standing directly opposite each other, measure exactly the same height, while others come within a few feet of a common height.—Chicago Record.

A MEASURE OF MERIT.

East Liverpool Citizens Should Weigh Well This Evidence.

Proof of merit lies in the evidence. Convincing evidence in East Liverpool.

Is not the testimony of strangers; But the indorsement of East Liverpool people.

That's the kind of proof given here. The statement of an East Liverpool citizen:

Mrs. Edward Orr, of 220 Thompson street, says: "My sister, Mrs. Borland, of Pittsburg, while visiting us, recommended Doan's Kidney Pills so highly that I was induced to try them. I had severe attacks of kidney complaint; some times I was so bad I could not get up; many times my neighbors came and found me lying on the lounge suffering, when I intended to do a big day's work. I was so miserable I could do nothing. After my sister told me of the pills I made up my mind to try them and got a box at the W. & W. pharmacy. They did just what they claimed they would do—cured me sound and well in a few days. My little girl was feeling poorly and had a sallow complexion for some time. I gave her a few doses and after the treatment she felt splendidly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

THE WEATHER.

ONCE MORE

Talk of That Cross Country Road Has Struck Lisbon With a Vengeance.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Harry G. Folts, of Chicago, applied to the Lisbon council last evening for an ordinance to grant permission to construct street railway lines through this city.

Folts is prominently identified with Chicago parties who have been investigating the West Point coal fields during the past year.

He asks that a franchise be given authorizing them to maintain the road for 25 years.

A SMALL FIRE AT HARKER'S POTTERY.

The roof on the new kiln shed at the Harker pottery caught fire this afternoon and the department was called out. The blaze was extinguished by the workmen before it did much damage.

Unique in Their Alignment.

The highest of the Tennessee mountains is the Unaka range, and its highest peak is Rattlesnake, the giant that stands above the Cherokee Indian reservation over 7,000 feet. Twenty-two peaks measure about 6,000 feet. A remarkable fact is that some of these peaks, standing directly opposite each other, measure exactly the same height, while others come within a few feet of a common height.—Chicago Record.

A MEASURE OF MERIT.

East Liverpool Citizens Should Weigh Well This Evidence.

Proof of merit lies in the evidence. Convincing evidence in East Liverpool.

Is not the testimony of strangers; But the indorsement of East Liverpool people.

That's the kind of proof given here. The statement of an East Liverpool citizen:

Mrs. Edward Orr, of 220 Thompson street, says: "My sister, Mrs. Borland, of Pittsburg, while visiting us, recommended Doan's Kidney Pills so highly that I was induced to try them. I had severe attacks of kidney complaint; some times I was so bad I could not get up; many times my neighbors came and found me lying on the lounge suffering, when I intended to do a big day's work. I was so miserable I could do nothing. After my sister told me of the pills I made up my mind to try them and got a box at the W. & W. pharmacy. They did just what they claimed they would do—cured me sound and well in a few days. My little girl was feeling poorly and had a sallow complexion for some time. I gave her a few doses and after the treatment she felt splendidly."

THESE MARRIAGES WERE FAILURES

Judge Hole Granted a Number of Divorces After Hearing the Sad Stories.

MRS. LAUBSCHER WAS ABUSED

The Court Not Only Gave Her a Divorce but Restored Her Maiden Name.

THREE PETITIONS GRANTED

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Judge Hole opened a session of divorce court yesterday afternoon and for several hours was occupied in listening to the domestic troubles of those in court.

Mrs. Edna B. Laubscher, of Wells-ville, told a story of cruelty to the court on the part of her husband, Lewis Laubscher. As Miss Edna Menough she was married to Lewis Laubscher in March, 1896, and had one child, which died at the age of nine months. She says that within a month after her marriage she discovered that he was a professional gambler and when she would question him after he had stayed out all night he would strike her and kick her, and that on one occasion, a short time before her child was born, he came home drunk and, dragging her from her bed, he kicked her downstairs. On one occasion, she says, he kicked her from her bed and knocked her down, when she lay unconscious for two hours.

Mrs. Laubscher claims that her life was in danger while living with him, and she left him last February and has since been living in Cleveland. The divorce was granted and her maiden name restored.

Mrs. Elizabeth I. Campbell, of Elkton, was given a divorce from Thomas M. Campbell and the control of her two minor children. They were married in 1887 and the grounds of divorce were drinking and neglect of duty.

Gus Knight, of Negley, was legally separated from Nora Knight and will have charge of two minor children. The Knights were married in 1891 in Wampum, Pa., but the wife soon grew tired of domestic duty and would neglect her family and remain away from home for days at a time. On one occasion she returned in an intoxicated condition.

Mrs. Annie M. Herbert was divorced from Coss T. Herbert. Mrs. Herbert now lives in East Liverpool and supports a seven-year-old daughter by working in the pottery. She was married in 1891 in Salineville and was abandoned a few years later in Lisbon.

TO DISSOLVE.

The Hulings Electrical Company, of This City, File an Application in Court.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—The directors of the Huling Electrical company, which was incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing electrical goods and fixtures, made application this morning to dissolve the partnership.

The business of the company has been wholly abandoned during the past four years, and as they own no property and owe no debts, the parties interested want the corporation abandoned.

On account of holiday, Joseph Bros.' store will be closed all day Wednesday.

COT DAMAGES.

McDaniel Sued for $3 And Received the Sum of 50 Cents.

The case of Henry McDaniel versus Oscar Whitseigle, in which the defendant was alleged to have stolen some apples, for which damages in the sum of $3 was asked, was tried in the court of Justice Carman yesterday and the decision was reserved until 6 o'clock last evening. When that time arrived the justice rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for punitive damage in the sum of 50 cents and the costs in the case.

HOODLUMS

Made Themselves Obnoxious at the Dance and Were Ejected by Officer Hamilton.

The Harris benefit dance held at Columbian park last evening was a complete success, both socially and financially. Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion excepting the conduct of a few drunken hoodlums from the city who annoyed the crowd until Officer Hamilton appeared. They were hustled out on the hillside, where they remained the entire evening.

LOAFERS

Will Receive Their Just Deserts at the Hands of the East End Police.

The authorities in East End state they have several places where the cards recently issued by Chief Thompson in reference to loafing and loitering may be placed to a very great advantage.

There are a few corners in that neighborhood where men and boys are in the habit of congregating nightly, and the language they use is anything but elevating.

WHERE IS IT?

East End Residents Are Very Anxious to See a Much Needed Fire Plug.

The water works department were ordered by council some three weeks ago to place a water plug at the National China company's plant. The work has not yet been done, and residents in that vicinity are wondering if the attachment will be made this year. It is badly needed.

PLAYING CARDS.

Small Boys Were Desecrating the Old McKinnon Grave-Yard.

Several small boys were yesterday discovered playing cards in the old McKinnon graveyard. They were put out by George McKinnon, and if the offense is repeated some arrests will likely be made.

Struck by a Stone.

A little daughter of John Young, of Mulberry street, was hit on the head with a stone this morning. A small boy named Webb threw the missile, and judging from the size of the stone, the child received a severe shock.

A full line of potters' sponges at the East End Pharmacy.

SOUTH SIDE.

GOOD BUSINESS.

The Receipts for the Chester Post-Office Were About the Same As Last Month.

The Chester postoffice last month cancelled $49 31 worth of stamps, sold stamps to the amount of $65 44; received 12 special delivery letters and dispatched 27 registered letters.

Postmaster O. O. Allison reports that the office barely held its own during September, and the receipts for the month were about the average.

Among the Sick.

Samuel Swearingen, who resides in the country south of town, is still very ill, and little hope is entertained for his recovery.

Mrs. Joseph Smith, of Carolina avenue, is very ill.

John Brown, of near Hookstown, is ill with typhoid fever.

His Buggy Broke.

John Nelson, of near Georgetown, was driving to Chester this morning in company with his daughter, and when near the Chester livery the buggy struck a stone, breaking the front wheel. Nelson indulged in some tall swearing, which seemed to relieve the man's feelings. They will return home by rail.

For Parts Unknown.

McKibbons and Small, two teamsters who have been employed on the improvements at the upper end of town, left last night for parts unknown.

The men took with them their teams and some other small articles which were laying loose.

Raised the Kitchen.

A kitchen raising occurred Saturday at the home of George Evans. A number of guests were present and refreshments were served. Some trouble was had with several small boys, but they were soon settled by Mr. Evans.

Attending the Fair.

The following Chester people are in attendance at the Burgettstown fair this week: Miss Lola Silvertham, Charles Hutton, James Gibson, C. F. Allison.

OVER IN THE PHILIPPINES

Minister Barrett Tells His Experience With the Tricky Aguinaldo.

THE FILIPINOS ARE MISLED

Circulars of an Infamous Nature Spread Broadcast Among the Natives.

DEMOCRACY DID THE DEED

Minister Barrett is a man of slender build, quick in movement and motion, a ready and pleasing talker, and he won the full attention of his hearers from the start and held it to the finish. He first made himself solid with the ladies of his audience by a neat and graceful tribute to them, receiving generous applause for his effort; then he brought down the house with a description of Roosevelt as soldier and statesman, and set the audience wild with his portraiture of McKinley, "the noblest Roman of them all." Barrett said in part:

"I know Aguinaldo well, and he in turn asserts that he knows me well. I am fully conversant with the state of affairs in the Philippines, and especially in the island of Luzon, and I can truthfully say that no loyal or true American has the shadow of right to advocate the cause of Aguinaldo or his misguided followers. And I can further say that any Democrat who understands fully the question of the Philippines ought to be heartily ashamed of himself if he backs up Atkinson, Bryan and such men in their antagonism to our soldiers and their advocacy of the cause of the insurgents.

"As you are no doubt aware, I have had the honor of occupying the position of minister to Siam. Do not imagine for a moment that civilization does not exist in Siam. They have in that country as fine thoroughfares and as fine public buildings as you will find anywhere in the United States, while the monarch in control is a man of rare intelligence. In conversation with him he said:

"Mr. Minister, I am glad to greet you, as the representative of a great nation, in our eastern country. We know much of the United States of America, and we are glad to know that your people will become better acquainted with Asiatic customs and manners. We have nothing to fear from a great nation of liberty loving people."

"The point I desire to impress upon your minds is the plain truth that Aguinaldo and his misguided followers have nothing to fear from the liberty loving people of the United States, under the liberal condition of affairs as existing under a Republican administration, with President William McKinley at the head of that administration.

"Democracy has much to answer for in misleading the Filipinos, and I do not believe that a single drop of American blood would have been shed by the insurgents at Manila and in the surrounding country, had not the natives been misled by such men as Aguinaldo, Agoncillo and other prominent Filipinos, backed and sustained by such men as Atkinson, Bryan and other Democratic representatives on this side of the Pacific, the latter influenced by no other motives than the making and manufacturing of political capital for the present presidential campaign.

"In my residence in the Filipino islands I found it necessary to learn the language of the native Filipinos in and around Manila, and I talk their language now almost as readily as I do English. Aguinaldo is an educated man, brainy and cunning, a man of overwhelming ambition. He can and does love, very dearly, his wife and children; and yet, such is his ambition, he determined to murder his own brother, simply because he believed that that brother stood in the way of his ambitious projects; and he would have carried his project into execution had not terrible influences been brought to bear upon him. He did have murdered some of his best and bravest officers, simply because he was jealous of them and because they expressed opinions opposed to those he held and advocated.

"Is Aguinaldo a smart man? Yes, as smart and keen as they make them. Place him in New York city and give him a chance in the field of politics and he would rob Croker of his prestige and power and steal his robes of office.

"Is he a second Washington? I should say not. He is the essence of treachery and untruthfulness. He is an eastern diplomat—a finished liar. I personally know that, at a great banquet given in Manila years ago he toasted the queen of Spain and the boy king and vowed and swore loyalty and fealty and truth to his sovereign, and at that very moment he was busily engaged in hatching the eggs of treason and assassination.

"I personally know and loved General Lawton, the hero par excellence of the Philippine war. You know the particulars of his death. You know that he felt and said American sympathizers would be responsible for his death, in case he was killed by a bullet from a Filipino rifle; and the loyal and true men of the nation echo Lawton's statement. I was with the heroic Colonel Stotzenberg when he received his death wound, and with his head upon my knee, in his last moments of life he echoed the sentiment expressed by General Lawton, and held American sympathizers responsible for his blood and the blood of our heroic officers and men who went down to death from wounds inflicted by weapons in the hands of the insurgents.

"When victory crowned our arms around Manila and we advanced into the interior, we captured town after town, the enemy fleeing from the wrath to come. One fine looking native woman, knowing me by sight, advanced to my side, and, drawing a paper from her bosom, tearfully asked me if the contents printed there were true. It was a paper printed in the native language, with illustrations vile beyond description, and display lines printed beneath the cuts, telling the natives, men and women, to resist the Americans to the death, asserting that the American soldiers would take the daughters of the people as mistresses and make slaves of the sons. The name of Don Emilio Aguinaldo was signed to this precious document, as well as the names of other prominent and powerful personages; and these documents were printed by the tens of thousands and distributed all over the country, in common with documents from this side of the water, sent over to Aguinaldo and translated and published in the Philippine language. I do not believe that there would have been any outbreak at Manila on the part of the Filipinos had it not been for the aid and comfort and assistance rendered them by cunning and unscrupulous politicians in the United States; and the loyal American voters will hold them responsible for their cowardly work, and fittingly answer them at the polls in the coming November election. Good night."

TRENTVALE STREET.

Property Owners Visit the News Review And Make Warm Protest.

Editor News Review—We of Trentvale street have been given the cold shoulder by our councilmanic body, and we don't like the medicine they have given us. We had the assurance that we should have a square and fair deal, in common with other thoroughfares, and we claim that this promise has been broken. The consent of property owners was gained, resolution passed, ordinance duly drawn up, passed and printed, and then we were quietly dumped into the mud, while the Calcutta road will be graded and paved. We want this matter remedied, simply because we have justice and right upon our side; and if our members of council will not pay attention to a just and fair plea, they are not fit to hold office. We believe that those who voted against the measure did not fully understand the circumstances in detail, and we appeal to them, if possible, to remedy the evil perpetrated against us.

ROOSEVELT IN NEBRASKA.

The Governor Addressed Large Number of People.

McCook, Neb., Oct. 2.—Governor Roosevelt's first day in Nebraska may be regarded as successful, though the morning started out wet and chilly and the audiences as a necessity were small. Thirteen speeches were made during the journey and last night. Probably 30,000 or 40,000 people were addressed during the day. Governor Roosevelt's special train remained at McCook until late in the night, when it pulled out for North Platte. Today's journey, it was expected, will cover a distance of 600 miles and will include within that distance 11 speeches. Tonight a journey will be made to Broken Bow, which, it is expected, will be reached tomorrow morning.

DEMOCRACY DID THE DEED

Minister Barrett is a man of slender build, quick in movement and motion, a ready and pleasing talker, and he won the full attention of his hearers from the start and held it to the finish. He first made himself solid with the ladies of his audience by a neat and graceful tribute to them, receiving generous applause for his effort; then he brought down the house with a description of Roosevelt as soldier and statesman, and set the audience wild with his portraiture of McKinley, "the noblest Roman of them all." Barrett said in part:

"I know Aguinaldo well, and he in turn asserts that he knows me well. I am fully conversant with the state of affairs in the Philippines, and especially in the island of Luzon, and I can truthfully say that no loyal or true American has the shadow of right to advocate the cause of Aguinaldo or his misguided followers. And I can further say that any Democrat who understands fully the question of the Philippines ought to be heartily ashamed of himself if he backs up Atkinson, Bryan and such men in their antagonism to our soldiers and their advocacy of the cause of the insurgents.

"As you are no doubt aware, I have had the honor of occupying the position of minister to Siam. Do not imagine for a moment that civilization does not exist in Siam. They have in that country as fine thoroughfares and as fine public buildings as you will find anywhere in the United States, while the monarch in control is a man of rare intelligence. In conversation with him he said:

"Mr. Minister, I am glad to greet you, as the representative of a great nation, in our eastern country. We know much of the United States of America, and we are glad to know that your people will become better acquainted with Asiatic customs and manners. We have nothing to fear from a great nation of liberty loving people."

"The point I desire to impress upon your minds is the plain truth that Aguinaldo and his misguided followers have nothing to fear from the liberty loving people of the United States, under the liberal condition of affairs as existing under a Republican administration, with President William McKinley at the head of that administration.

"Democracy has much to answer for in misleading the Filipinos, and I do not believe that a single drop of American blood would have been shed by the insurgents at Manila and in the surrounding country, had not the natives been misled by such men as Aguinaldo, Agoncillo and other prominent Filipinos, backed and sustained by such men as Atkinson, Bryan and other Democratic representatives on this side of the Pacific, the latter influenced by no other motives than the making and manufacturing of political capital for the present presidential campaign.

"In my residence in the Filipino islands I found it necessary to learn the language of the native Filipinos in and around Manila, and I talk their language now almost as readily as I do English. Aguinaldo is an educated man, brainy and cunning, a man of overwhelming ambition. He can and does love, very dearly, his wife and children; and yet, such is his ambition, he determined to murder his own brother, simply because he believed that that brother stood in the way of his ambitious projects; and he would have carried his project into execution had not terrible influences been brought to bear upon him. He did have murdered some of his best and bravest officers, simply because he was jealous of them and because they expressed opinions opposed to those he held and advocated.

"Is Aguinaldo a smart man? Yes, as smart and keen as they make them. Place him in New York city and give him a chance in the field of politics and he would rob Croker of his prestige and power and steal his robes of office.

"Is he a second Washington? I should say not. He is the essence of treachery and untruthfulness. He is an eastern diplomat—a finished liar. I personally know that, at a great banquet given in Manila years ago he toasted the queen of Spain and the boy king and vowed and swore loyalty and fealty and truth to his sovereign, and at that very moment he was busily engaged in hatching the eggs of treason and assassination.

"I personally know and loved General Lawton, the hero par excellence of the Philippine war. You know the particulars of his death. You know that he felt and said American sympathizers would be responsible for his death, in case he was killed by a bullet from a Filipino rifle; and the loyal and true men of the nation echo Lawton's statement. I was with the heroic Colonel Stotzenberg when he received his death wound, and with his head upon my knee, in his last moments of life he echoed the sentiment expressed by General Lawton, and held American sympathizers responsible for his blood and the blood of our heroic officers and men who went down to death from wounds inflicted by weapons in the hands of the insurgents.

"When victory crowned our arms around Manila and we advanced into the interior, we captured town after town, the enemy fleeing from the wrath to come. One fine looking native woman, knowing me by sight, advanced to my side, and, drawing a paper from her bosom, tearfully asked me if the contents printed there were true. It was a paper printed in the native language, with illustrations vile beyond description, and display lines printed beneath the cuts, telling the natives, men and women, to resist the Americans to the death, asserting that the American soldiers would take the daughters of the people as mistresses and make slaves of the sons. The name of Don Emilio Aguinaldo was signed to this precious document, as well as the names of other prominent and powerful personages; and these documents were printed by the tens of thousands and distributed all over the country, in common with documents from this side of the water, sent over to Aguinaldo and translated and published in the Philippine language. I do not believe that there would have been any outbreak at Manila on the part of the Filipinos had it not been for the aid and comfort and assistance rendered them by cunning and unscrupulous politicians in the United States; and the loyal American voters will hold them responsible for their cowardly work, and fittingly answer them at the polls in the coming November election. Good night."

Property Owners Visit the News Review And Make Warm Protest.

Editor News Review—We of Trentvale street have been given the cold shoulder by our councilmanic body, and we don't like the medicine they have given us. We had the assurance that we should have a square and fair deal, in common with other thoroughfares, and we claim that this promise has been broken. The consent of property owners was gained, resolution passed, ordinance duly drawn up, passed and printed, and then we were quietly dumped into the mud, while the Calcutta road will be graded and paved. We want this matter remedied, simply because we have justice and right upon our side; and if our members of council will not pay attention to a just and fair plea, they are not fit to hold office. We believe that those who voted against the measure did not fully understand the circumstances in detail, and we appeal to them, if possible, to remedy the evil perpetrated against us.

ROOSEVELT IN NEBRASKA.

The Governor Addressed Large Number of People.

McCook, Neb., Oct. 2.—Governor Roosevelt's first day in Nebraska may be regarded as successful, though the morning started out wet and chilly and the audiences as a necessity were small. Thirteen speeches were made during the journey and last night. Probably 30,000 or 40,000 people were addressed during the day. Governor Roosevelt's special train remained at McCook until late in the night, when it pulled out for North Platte. Today's journey, it was expected, will cover a distance of 600 miles and will include within that distance 11 speeches. Tonight a journey will be made to Broken Bow, which, it is expected, will be reached tomorrow morning.

Excursions to Chattanooga, Tenn., via Pennsylvania Lines.

October 7th and 8th, for general encampment of Spanish-American war veterans, and reunion of Society of the Army of the Cumberland, excursion tickets will be sold to Chattanooga, Tenn., via Pennsylvania lines; valid returning until Sunday, October 14.

UNDERTOOK TOO MUCH OF A TASK

Shamrocks Found That South Sides Were Not Easy and Are Now Minus $50.

WERE ALSO SHY FIVE RUNS

Rooters Were With Southside and the Shamrocks Went Away Up In the Air.

SOME PLAYERS TALKED FIGHT

The Shamrock base ball team yesterday afternoon undertook the somewhat difficult feat of making two runs to their opponents one, and when the game ended they were just five runs shy needed to defeat the Southside club.

The game was by far the most exciting played on the Rock Springs grounds this year, as it was for $50 a side and a large number of side bets had been made.

The rooters played no small part in the contest, and out of the 200 people who saw the game, at least 150 were rooting for the Southside club and doing it with a vengeance. When their favorites made runs, hats went up in the air and so did the Shamrocks. Everybody yelled, and while there was not much ball playing on either side there was plenty of enthusiasm.

One decision of the umpire, when he called Boulton out at home in the fifth, pretty near ended in a fight. The Shamrocks clustered around him like bees and he was pushed all over the field. He changed his decision and then defied Bob Webb to come out in the diamond and fight with him. Micky Lynch also became obstreperous and wanted to fight with Mackall because the latter player blocked Godwin at second base. Mackall was willing, but friends interfered and the players agreed to meet after the game. They haven't met yet. McNicol was excited and wanted to say that the game should go on even if it was dark at the fifth inning, as he wanted a longer run for his money. Wood Bevington waved dollar bills in the air and bet on the runs each inning. Lyle Ashbaugh was so sure the Shamrocks would win he bet they would beat the Southsides three to one.

Even Bobby Smurthwaite lost his head and made two bad errors, which meant runs. McShane also took a hand and threw the ball to the hill in an effort to catch a player off second base. It only cost two runs.

A detail of the wonderful game is as follows:

Shamrocks went to bat and McNicol hit to Mackall at third. Mackall booted the ball around and McNicol was safe. He proceeded to steal second and came home on a passed ball. Webb hit to Mackall and Mackall again made an error. He stole second and came home on a hit by Davis. Davis stole second and came home on a passed ball. Barker drew a base on balls and got to third on passed balls. Tried to come home on the same thing, but was thrown out at the plate. Lynch went out from Winters to Gallagher. Godwin got to first on an error by Mackall and came home on a passed ball. Smurthwaite reached first on an error by Mackall, stole second and tried to come home on a passed ball, but was thrown out.

The inning closed with Shamrock stock away up and the man with the dollar bills shouting that he would bet $1 to 75 cents that the Southsides wouldn't score.

Hill opened with a three-bagger to the hill. Winters hit safe, scoring

Hill; Bennett went out to Barker; Mackall drew a base on balls; Wheatley hit safe, scoring Winters; Webb tried to throw home to catch Mackall and threw the ball over Davis' head and they all scored. Gallagher went out to Godwin and Howard struck out. Southside stock was now good.

In the second Shamrocks made one on an error by Bennett and a hit by McNicol, while the Southsides got a goose egg.

Both clubs were shut out in the third, but the balloon ascended in the fourth.

The Shamrocks made four in the fourth on three bases on balls, three passed balls and a hit by Davis. In this inning Clarke gave an exhibition of how to steal home when the pitcher had the ball. He got out.

These four runs didn't worry Southside a bit. Howard struck out. Hanlon hit to Smurthwaite, who booted the ball; Kinsey hit a salty one to McNicol, who didn't field it clean; a few seconds later McShane threw to Godwin to catch Hanlon off second. He didn't catch him and the ball went to the hill and both runners scored. Hill then made another three-bagger and came home a minute later on an error by McShane, who attempted to catch Winters off first. Winters went to third on the play and ran into Smurthwaite. Some time had to be taken while Winters revived. McShane then decided to quit and Chambers went into the box and Lynch got back in the game. The agony was ended by Bennett going out from third to first.

In the fifth Smurthwaite drew a base on balls and Lynch went to bat. There was a large howl, as he had no business back in the game after he had once left it, and the umpire ruled him out and Boulton took his place and signalled his appearance by making a two-base hit and scoring on a blocked ball. The umpire called him out, but the wars and rumors of wars were too much for the umpire and he called him safe. McNicol, Webb and Chambers struck out.

The Southsides went out in one, two, three order, and the great game was over.

WILD TRAIN WRECKED.

Dashed Into a Pittsburg and Western Freight—Three Killed and Six Injured.

Pittsburg, Oct. 2.—Three men were killed and six others injured at Gibsonia. Thirty freight cars were piled high and the track torn up for a quarter of a mile. Fire added to the horror, and the bodies of the three dead men were burned before the rescuers could reach them. It was the most disastrous wreck that ever occurred on the Pittsburg and Western railroad. The casualties are:

The dead: Thomas O'Hara, of Titusville, who was beating his way to Pittsburg; body caught under the wreckage and burned.

Two unknown tramps, bodies burned in the wreck.

The injured: Clarence O. Sprague, aged 27, of Bennett, engineer of fast freight train; dislocated shoulder, received by jumping from his engine.

William Kerr, aged 22, of Milwaukee, traveling with O'Hara; scalp wound and bruised about the head and body. Taken to Allegheny General Hospital.

Fireman Blake, of the fast freight; bruised about the body by jumping from the train. Taken to his home.

August Hauch, of Forty-third street, fireman of the fast freight, bruised by tumbling from the engine. Went to his home.

Lester L. Green, of Millvale, front brakeman of the fast freight, ankle dislocated by jumping; taken to his home.

J. L. Boyer, brakeman, of Millvale, finger broken and bruised about the body; not serious.

The wreck occurred on a steep grade at Gibsonia. Fast freight No. 92, which was running wild, crashed into the rear end of the local freight, which was standing on the main track at the station.

SCHWAB VISITED CANTON.

He and Senator Penrose Called Upon President McKinley—Stark County Delegation Received.

Canton, O., Oct. 2.—President McKinley received visits from Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania; President Schwab, of the Carnegie company; Former Minister to Siam Barrett, and others. He also received and shook hands with a delegation of about 75 members of the Stark county central committee who marched up to the McKinley yard from their regular meeting to pay their respects.

President Schwab, of the Carnegie company, left without dropping any intimation of what brought him here. Senator Penrose, who came and went with him, said they had met on the train by chance.

Mr. Barrett was on his way to fill a speaking engagement and merely stopped over to talk with the president between trains. There was nothing of special importance considered.

Condemned Dowite Mobs.

Mansfield, O., Oct. 2.—The Mansfield Ministerial association, comprising pastors of various Protestant churches of the city, held a meeting at the home of Rev. L. G. Battman, pastor of the Christian church and adopted resolutions condemning mobs against Dowites, also all forms of lawlessness.

Charged With Embezzlement.

Shamrocks Found That South Sides Were Not Easy and Are Now Minus $50.

WERE ALSO SHY FIVE RUNS

Rooters Were With Southside and the Shamrocks Went Away Up In the Air.

SOME PLAYERS TALKED FIGHT

The Shamrock base ball team yesterday afternoon undertook the somewhat difficult feat of making two runs to their opponents one, and when the game ended they were just five runs shy needed to defeat the Southside club.

The game was by far the most exciting played on the Rock Springs grounds this year, as it was for $50 a side and a large number of side bets had been made.

The rooters played no small part in the contest, and out of the 200 people who saw the game, at least 150 were rooting for the Southside club and doing it with a vengeance. When their favorites made runs, hats went up in the air and so did the Shamrocks. Everybody yelled, and while there was not much ball playing on either side there was plenty of enthusiasm.

One decision of the umpire, when he called Boulton out at home in the fifth, pretty near ended in a fight. The Shamrocks clustered around him like bees and he was pushed all over the field. He changed his decision and then defied Bob Webb to come out in the diamond and fight with him. Micky Lynch also became obstreperous and wanted to fight with Mackall because the latter player blocked Godwin at second base. Mackall was willing, but friends interfered and the players agreed to meet after the game. They haven't met yet. McNicol was excited and wanted to say that the game should go on even if it was dark at the fifth inning, as he wanted a longer run for his money. Wood Bevington waved dollar bills in the air and bet on the runs each inning. Lyle Ashbaugh was so sure the Shamrocks would win he bet they would beat the Southsides three to one.

Even Bobby Smurthwaite lost his head and made two bad errors, which meant runs. McShane also took a hand and threw the ball to the hill in an effort to catch a player off second base. It only cost two runs.

A detail of the wonderful game is as follows:

Shamrocks went to bat and McNicol hit to Mackall at third. Mackall booted the ball around and McNicol was safe. He proceeded to steal second and came home on a passed ball. Webb hit to Mackall and Mackall again made an error. He stole second and came home on a hit by Davis. Davis stole second and came home on a passed ball. Barker drew a base on balls and got to third on passed balls. Tried to come home on the same thing, but was thrown out at the plate. Lynch went out from Winters to Gallagher. Godwin got to first on an error by Mackall and came home on a passed ball. Smurthwaite reached first on an error by Mackall, stole second and tried to come home on a passed ball, but was thrown out.

The inning closed with Shamrock stock away up and the man with the dollar bills shouting that he would bet $1 to 75 cents that the Southsides wouldn't score.

Hill opened with a three-bagger to the hill. Winters hit safe, scoring

Hill; Bennett went out to Barker; Mackall drew a base on balls; Wheatley nit safe, scoring Winters; Webb tried to throw home to catch Mackall and threw the ball over Davis' head and they all scored. Gallagher went out to Godwin and Howard struck out. Southside stock was now good.

In the second Shamrocks made one on an error by Bennett and a hit by McNicol, while the Southsides got a goose egg.

Both clubs were shut out in the third, but the balloon ascended in the fourth.

The Shamrocks made four in the fourth on three bases on balls, three passed balls and a hit by Davis. In this inning Clarke gave an exhibition of how to steal home when the pitcher had the ball. He got out.

These four runs didn't worry Southside a bit. Howard struck out. Hanlon hit to Smurthwaite, who booted the ball; Kinsey hit a salty one to McNicol, who didn't field it clean; a few seconds later McShane threw to Godwin to catch Hanlon off second. He didn't catch him and the ball went to the hill and both runners scored. Hill then made another three-bagger and came home a minute later on an error by McShane, who attempted to catch Winters off first. Winters went to third on the play and ran into Smurthwaite. Some time had to be taken while Winters revived. McShane then decided to quit and Chambers went into the box and Lynch got back in the game. The agony was ended by Bennett going out from third to first.

In the fifth Smurthwaite drew a base on balls and Lynch went to bat. There was a large howl, as he had no business back in the game after he had once left it, and the umpire ruled him out and Boulton took his place and signalled his appearance by making a two-base hit and scoring on a blocked ball. The umpire called him out, but the wars and rumors of wars were too much for the umpire and he called him safe. McNicol, Webb and Chambers struck out.

The Southsides went out in one, two, three order, and the great game was over.

Are apt to overdo their strength. The rivalries of the road, the cheerful companionship, the exhilaration of the swift movement on the machine, all tend to make a woman unconsciously overtax herself. The results are often serious, and may affect the whole future of wifehood and motherhood.

Every woman who is conscious of feminine irregularities or disorders from strain or any other cause, should begin at once the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It promptly corrects all female irregularity dries the drains which are so debilitating, and tones the nervous system. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"I had falling of internal organs and had to go to bed every month; had irregular monthly periods which would sometimes last ten or twelve days," writes Mrs. Alice L. 16TH YEAR. NO. 97.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1900.

TWO CENTS

SCHOOL BOARD HELD A SESSION

President and Clerk Had Renewed a Contract With Ohio Valley Gas Company.

FUEL FOR OTHER BUILDINGS

The Board Is Getting Ready For the Winter Season In Plenty of Time.

SEVERAL BILLS WERE PAID

The board of education met in regular session at 8:20 last night, with Chairman Vodrey and Members Wells, Murphy, Smith, Knowles and Hill present.

The members had congregated in the superintendent's office before the meeting, where some private matters were discussed.

After the minutes had been approved, Clerk Hill brought up the matter of furnishing coal to those of the buildings where gas had not yet been added. It was developed that not much coal would be needed and the clerk was instructed to ask for bids from the various dealers.

The action of the president and clerk in renewing the contract with the Ohio Valley Gas company was ratified. These officials will also make a contract with the Ft. Pitt company to furnish gas for the East End buildings at the same figure.

The clerk then read the pay roll and when the bill of the American School Furniture company was reached, the question was raised as to whether the bill rendered did not include the putting up of the seats. As this work had been done at the expense of the board, the bill will be referred back for correction.

Mr. Hill reported that insurance to the amount of $15,000 had been taken on the Helana building. This does not include furnishings and the members were of the opinion that the property would stand $1,000 more. This will be arranged for at once.

The following bills were ordered paid:

Jacob Stein, supplies, $2.15; G. H. Owen & Co., premiums, $12; Harvey McHenry, carpenter work, $2,000; Bell Telephone company, $6.55; Eagle Hardware, repairs, $9; American Book company, books, $1,703.73; E. W. Hill, premiums, $37.50; Ohio Valley Gas company, gas, $12.90; A. J. Tiffany, supplies, $195; Wilson Stationery Co., supplies, $177.06; A. J. Moon, seed, 55 cents; Abrams & Stewart, insurance, $56.25; Robert Moore, coal, $52.20; Pennsylvania company, freight, $9.40; Hill & Hawkins, paper, $17.80; Adams Express Co., $2.75; Howard Chemical Co., $3; Slottington-Bangor Slate syndicate, blackboards, $294.04; Mrs. A. M. Davidson & Co., supplies, $26.75; John J. Hodson, supplies, $4.25; Ida M. Seiler, Pleasant Heights, water and cleaning, $4.80; Andy Rathay, hauling, $14.82; M. W. Elliott, $29.12; J. B. Martin, repairs, $4.10; Robert Walter, grading and repairing, $131.75; H. R. McVay, registers for teachers, $70.

On recommendation of Superintendent Rayman Miss Olive Pike was engaged as a regular teacher in No. 1 at a salary of $35 per month.

In connection with his report the superintendent stated that the teachers' classes for substitutes and beginners had been organized and were getting along nicely. He reported that the seniors were required to attend, as the experience proved of great value to them, especially in cases where they intended teaching.

Action was taken providing for an increase in the salary of Finley Cooley, janitor of the East End building, from $30 to $35 per month.

SEPTEMBER REPORT.

STATISTICAL STATEMENT OF SUPERINTENDENT RAYMAN,

The Per Cent of Attendance During the Month Has Been Exceedingly Gratifying.

GIVEN JUDGMENT.

An Echo of an East Liverpool Assignment Appears in Court.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Judge S. J. Firestone was given judgment on a promissory note against G. E. Todd and others for $437.38. A mortgage on a 15-acre tract of land in Fairfield township will be foreclosed.

Todd formerly conducted a store in East Liverpool and made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors.

DISMISSED THE CASE.

A Wellsville Action That Has Been Hanging Fire for Two Years Is Ended.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Judge Hole dismissed the case of Frank Geisse against D. T. Lawson at the cost of Geisse.

Two years ago he was defendant in an action in Squire MacKenzie's court, Wellsville, in which Lawson had recovered judgment against him, when he appealed the case to this court.

Authorized to Sell.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—William H. DeRhodes holds a judgment for $687 against William S. Newhouse, of Signal, and he was authorized to sell the property attached in the case. The amount is due on account, and as Newhouse has absconded the sale will be made.

ITALIANS ANNOY THE RESIDENTS

Some of the Gang That Is Working in the Calcutta Road Are Begging.

HAVE ENTERED SEVERAL HOUSES

And Frightened the Occupants and Only Leave When They Are Put Out.

COMPLAINTS MAY BE ENTERED

The residents of upper Avondale street have been annoyed a great deal lately by the Italians, who are employed on the Calcutta road improvements.

They have been begging for something to eat and wear from everyone in the vicinity, and yesterday several of them made a complete canvas of the houses on the east side of Avondale, and were so persistent and impudent at some of the houses they had to be forced to leave the premises.

On last Thursday just at dark Mrs. Benjamin Reddick was sitting at the supper table with the children, her husband not having come from work, when she was attracted by a noise in the front room. She went to the room and was startled to find a very repulsive looking man standing in the middle of the room examining the interior critically. The lady asked the man's business, but all she could get from him was the word "bread."

She said she had no bread and offered him some biscuit, which she had prepared for supper. These he refused, and the lady was compelled finally to call in a neighbor in order to get rid of the unwelcome visitor. She appealed to George Smart, who succeeded in ejecting the Italian, for such it proved to be, in a remarkably short space of time.

The same evening two Italians were discovered in one of the upper rooms of the residence of Mrs. W. H. Brooks, on Avondale street, and had evidently been there for some time. Mrs. Brooks was somewhat alarmed at the intruders, as they were rough looking and their appearance and actions indicated they were out for plunder. The callers were loath to depart and it was necessary to threaten them with arrest before they would leave.

No complaints have been made to the police, although a great many of the residents in that vicinity claim they have had sufficient provocation, and if the annoyance is continued some arrests will undoubtedly be the outcome.

AT WELLSVILLE

Governor George K. Nash Will Deliver an Address in That City on Oct. 20.

On Saturday, October 20, Governor George K. Nash and Hon. J. K. Richards will address a Republican meeting in Wellsville.

AN ACCIDENT.

Janitor F. S. Albright Ran a Knife Into His Arm Yesterday Afternoon.

Janitor F. S. Albright, of the Central school building, is very busy these days, and while erecting seats at the building yesterday morning between 4 and 5 o'clock he met with a painful accident. Mr. Albright was using a very sharp pen knife in his work and the knife slipped and penetrated his left arm just above the wrist, cutting a large gash.

SUSTAINED CASTON.

KNOWLES' DAMAGE CASE IS NOW OUT OF COURT.

He Sued the City to Recover $1,200 Because Avondale Street Grade Was Changed.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Judge Hole sustained a demurrer which has knocked out the case of George Knowles against the city of East Liverpool.

Knowles filed one of the actions to recover $1,200 by reason of the change of the grade on Avondale street, East Liverpool, when City Solicitor Gaston filed a demurrer to the action, claiming that the petition did not contain fact sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

ALLIANCE FAIR

It Will be Far the Best Ever Given in That City.

MRS. BELLE LEITH IS NOT INSANE

After Receiving Testimony of Physicians Judge Boone Would Not Send Her to Asylum.

ON THE SUBJECT OF RELIGION

She Is Mono-Maniac and Has Peculiar Ideas In Regard to Her Duty as a Wife.

HUSBAND WANTS A DIVORCE

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Mrs. Belle Leith was brought here late yesterday charged with being insane. The affidavit was made by Thomas J. Leith, the husband, who seemed anxious that she be incarcerated in an insane asylum.

Drs. Parke, of Wellsville, and Marquis, of Lisbon, examined the patient and were unanimous in the statement that Mrs. Leith was not a fit subject for the insane asylum.

According to their evidence the patient is a mono-maniac on the subject of religion, and during the past 12 years has entertained peculiar ideas regarding her duty as a wife.

Judge Boone would not recommend that Mrs. Leith be sent to an asylum, but said that she should have pleasant surroundings away from the influences of the religious society she has been connected with, as it was thought she had sufficient reasoning power to resist any revelation toward self-destruction.

Thomas Leith, the husband of the patient, has a divorce action in common pleas court and some time ago was ordered to pay $50 alimony and $5 each week.

TWO ARRESTS.

M'DERMOTT WAS GAY AT HIS BOARDING HOUSE.

Patrick O'Rourke fell into the hands of Officer Mahony last night and was conveyed to the city jail in the patrol. It cost him just $2 and costs.

Two of the parties who were in the saloon raid have appeared at city hall and paid their costs, amounting to $9.60. The balance of the parties will in this evening.

WANTED TO ENTER SUIT.

Harry Martin Desired to Have Officers Wood and Dawson Arrested for Trespass.

Sunday evening Harry Martin called at the home of Justice McCarron, and wanted to file charges of trespass against Officers Dawson and Wood. He was very anxious to have the officers arrested and said they had appeared at his house without his consent.

He didn't have security for the costs and his case wasn't taken by the squire.

STARTLED CLEVELAND

A Sensation In the Bribery Investigation.

A CHICAGOAN A STAR WITNESS.

Attorney For Windy City Firm Quoted City Officials as Authority For Charge That the Gamewell Company Paid to Have Its System Installed.

Cleveland, Oct. 2.—The star witness in the council bribery investigation was W. H. Boyd, the attorney who represents the Chicago Municipal Signal company, and the testimony he gave startled even those who were sanguine that if money had been paid to secure the contract for the police signal system for the Gamewell company, the fact would not be exposed.

From Mr. Boyd's testimony it became evident that he suspected crookedness in the council almost from the time the bids for the contract for the police signal system were opened, and that he watched the proceedings much closer than anyone on the outside was aware of. He named the councilmen whom he declared he had reasons for believing always stood together in voting, among them being President Steur.

The greatest share of the information which Mr. Boyd declared he obtained on the alleged crooked transactions, came, he says, from one of the councilmen alleged to have been bribed. In his testimony, he charged that the Gamewell company promised to pay $400 per vote and that when the goods were delivered it cut off the men who were bought with $200 each. At this, Mr. Boyd testified, some of the councilmen were indignant and were seeking to "throw down" the Gamewell company on the contract for the fire telegraph alarm system when it came up for approval. The witness also testified that Howard H. Burgess, the clerk of the council, had told him that money had been paid to councilmen.

"Mr. Burgess told me," said Mr. Boyd, "I am getting nothing out of this myself, but you know I am always on the watch out for the boys, and if there is anything I can get for me I go after it."

He further testified that Councilman O'Donnell had said to him that Howard had told him that Directors Barrett and Hyman were getting a "rake off" of $8,000 on the contract and that he didn't like them to "hog" everything. Also that Howard was going after the contract with the stuff and that if the Chicago Municipal Signal company wanted anything it would have to go after it with the cash.

PORTO RICOS IN POLITICS.

One Party Endorses Bryan—Other McKinley Administration.

San Juan de Porto Rico, Oct. 2.—The Federal party at its convention at Caguas passed resolutions affiliating itself with the Democratic party in the United States. Cablegrams from William Jennings Bryan and James K. Jones, chairman of the national Democratic committee, urging harmony, were read. Munoz Rivera made a speech, in which he opposed the administration on the ground that the Foraker bill is unsatisfactory and that the Porto Ricans desire a more independent form of government. The session will last several days and the delegates will name a commissioner for congress.

A Republican massmeeting at San Juan has endorsed the administration and nominated candidates for the house of delegates.

ATTACKED BY AN ITALIAN.

Another Beaver County Girl the Victim Miss Ludwig's Condition.

Monaca, Oct. 2.—Miss Edie White, while crossing the Ohio river bridge on her wheel was accosted by an Italian who pulled her from her wheel and attempted to embrace her. Miss White struggled vigorously and managed to escape.

Beaver county is being scourged for Mitchell, the negro who several days ago assaulted Miss Margaret Ludwig, the Remington school teacher. He is believed to be in hiding near here. Miss Ludwig is still in a critical condition, being unable to sleep.

Robbed by His Cook, Who Was Shot.

Tucson, Ariz., Oct. 2.—An old man named Hiram George has reached here from Mexico, where he claims he was robbed of $10,000 in Mexican money and wandered on the desert for 14 days, by Jim Murphy, his cook, who was afterward shot by the Mexican authorities. He says he was on his way to Galveston, where his wife and several children were lost in the flood. He says his money and mules are at Bachachua, Mexico.

TO CONTINUE MISSION WORK

A Group at Peking Determined to Re-open Schools There—Some to Take a Furlough.

Boston, Oct. 2.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions has received a message from the Rev. F. M. Chapin, one of its missionaries in Peking, disclosing the plans of the group of missionaries there. It is proposed to reopen the Bridgman School for Girls in Peking, either in the city or in Tien Tsin.

The North China college, which was destroyed in Tung Che, will probably be reopened in Peking. Minister Conger has given assurances that he will try to secure the use of two or more large compounds, which have been used by the Boxers and hence are liable to confiscation, for the use of the American board of missionaries. Eight of the missionaries, chiefly women, feel that they need a furlough and are prepared to remain.

TO NEGOTIATE PEACE.

Secretary Hay Announced Receiving Notification of Appointment of Five Chinese.

Washington, Oct. 2.—Secretary Hay has returned to Washington very much improved in health by his vacation in the New Hampshire hills. He has resumed charge of the affairs of the department. During the whole of his absence he has been in close touch with every move that has been made in the Chinese situation. He has been consulted in the preparation of every note that has been issued, and every telegram of any importance that has been sent. He is now well and strong enough to resume this work. And Dr. Hill, who, while acting secretary, has been suffering to some extent from malarial attacks, will take a short vacation. The secretary of state signaled his return by making public two telegrams which he has received. The first is from Minister Conger, showing that China has appointed five officers to conduct negotiations for peace, including Yung Lu, who is in command of the northern Chinese army. The dispatch is dated Peking, September 27, by way of Taku, September 30, and says: "Have received notice today from Prince Ching that he, Earl Li, Yung-Lu, and Viceroy Tin Kun Yi and Chang Chip Tung will act in concert in negotiations for peace. Yung-Lu is in the interior; Li Hung Chang is at Tien Tsin."

The other dispatch is from Consul McWade, at Canton, and confirms the report sent Saturday by Consul General Goodnow about the degradation of Prince Tuan and other officials. It is dated October 1, and says: "Decree just issued. Emperor blames ministers for whole trouble. Orders Tuan, Kangli and other officials degraded and punished by imperial court. Emperor holds Tuan and others entirely responsible for bloodshed."

General Chaffee sends the following to the war department:

"Taku, Sept. 30.
"Adjutant General, Washington:
"The health of the command is good. Have accepted the invitation of the hospital ship Maine to transfer some convalescents to the hospital ship Relief, now repairing at Nagasaki."
"Chaffee."

The following dispatch also was received from General Chaffee:
"Received September SHRDLU U
"Received Sept. 30, 1900, via Taku.
"Adjutant General, Washington:
"September 29, 30 cabled from Tien Tsin. Received your numbers 42 and 43. The Ninth Infantry, Third Squadron of Sixth Cavalry and light battery will constitute legation guard. Shall endeavor to get all supplies to Tong Chow before water falls."

"Chaffee."
Hongkong, Oct. 2.—The British gunboat Robin has shelled the village of Luk-Lao.

Luk-Lao is on the West river and the shelling was done in retaliation for the inhabitants firing on the British vessel. The ringleaders afterward were captured and flogged.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 2.—The Official Messenger today states that reports of the annexation of Manchuria by Russia are devoid of foundation.

Paris, Oct. 2.—The French consul general at Shanghai, under date of September 29, telegraphs that he has been informed by the governor of Sent-Che-Li that, through the intermediation of Sheng (the administrator of telegraphs and railroads), the missionaries and engineers at Theng-Ting-Fu were safe September 23; that the military and civil authorities had taken precautions to protect all the missionaries and that the Belgian mission at Ning-Tian-Lung was safe.

American Bankers to Meet.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 2.—The American Bankers' association will meet in annual session here today.

TO ADVANCE WAGES.

Wyoming Operators Agree on an Offer.

ANTHRACITE STRIKE STILL ON.

Employees of the Philadelphia and Reading Company Did Not Respond, by Refusing to Work, to the Proposal of Their Employers.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 2.—Coal operators at their meeting this afternoon decided to offer striking miners of the Wyoming valley a net advance of 10 per cent on wages heretofore paid and to take up with their employees any grievances which they may have; powder will be sold to miners at $1.50 a keg, but the difference between this rate and the old rate of $2.75 a keg shall be taken into account in figuring the net 10 per cent advance.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 2.—Although the labor leaders positively said they did not fear a break in the ranks of the anthracite coal strikers, they were nevertheless pleased to learn that the 10 per cent advance granted by the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron company in the Schuylkill valley was totally ignored by the striking mine workers. It was predicted that many of the strikers would return to work under the belief that the 10 per cent increase would be the limit of the operators' concessions, but the unanimity of the men in deciding to stand out for a further advance caused many remarks of surprise.

It was expected in some quarters that this would bring a turning point in the strike, but nothing came to the surface that would lead to any indication of the strike nearing an end. Since the operators began to hold conferences President Mitchell is receiving more information than formerly and giving out less. That he knows more about the situation than he cares to tell is hardly doubted by any one. He has practically admitted that he receives advices from New York as to the doings of the operators. There still is a lack of anything tangible on which to base the report of an immediate settlement. President Mitchell continues to deny that he knows anything about it.

The strike situation in the Lehigh Valley showed a change in favor of the men. Several hundred men quit work at the Calvin Pardee mines at Lattimer, as the result of persuasion on the part of the 400 marching strikers, and at Oneida and Cranberry the coal companies lost additional men. No collieries were closed down in this region.

ELECTIONS IN CONNECTICUT.

For Purpose of Choosing Town Officials and Deciding Liquor License.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 2.—It was "town meeting" day in Connecticut, 162 of the 168 towns in the state holding "the little town" elections for the governments and settling for the coming year the liquor license.

Towns and cities not participating in these little political contests are Hartford, New Haven, Bridgeport, Ansonia, Derby and Naugatuck. Returns received from 138 towns of the 162 voting showed Republican victories in 103 towns and Democratic success in 35. If the missing towns remain firm in their respective columns of last year, it would mean a total of 119 towns Republican and 43 Democratic, a net Republican loss of six towns.

The vote throughout the state was as a rule, light.

Oregon.

In the date of admission Oregon is one of the oldest states beyond the Mississippi, entering the Union in 1859. It was the first new state to have the political honor of naming the vice presidential candidate (Joseph Lane) for one of the great parties in the first year of its statehood.

PENSIONS TO SOLDIERS

Records of the Two Parties Fully Discussed.

ONE HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS

Added to Amount of Pensions Paid the Soldiers of the Union by Act of 1890. Hoke Smith and H. Clay Evans Contrasted in Work of Pension Bureau.

More than $500,000,000 is a magnificent amount to be paid out in less than 10 years under a single pension act, additional to what was paid during the same time under the regular pension acts preceding it. This is the money that the pensioners of the United States have had under the act of June 27, 1890, passed by a Republican congress, and signed by a Republican president, and so liberally administered by the succeeding Republican administrations, that there are now 420,912 soldiers and sailors, and 130,266 widows receiving its benefits, who would not be entitled under the general pension law. This is only a single evidence of the persistent care of the Republican party for the pensioners.

Not one Republican is on record, with even one adverse vote, upon the entire 14 important pension measures voted upon by congress since the civil war; while 1,068 Republicans voted in favor of these different measures. On the other hand, during the same time and upon the same bills, more than 60 per cent of all the Democrats in congress, or 648, are shown by the Congressional Record, to have voted against these same pension bills, and less than 40 per cent of the Democrats, or only 417, to have voted for them. This contrast has been continuous between the parties in their actual votes in congress since the great war inflicted such vast suffering upon our immense armies and navies, and made the enormous pension list an indispensable part of the price paid by the country for secession and treason, caused by the Southern Democracy.

In 20 years of Republican rule, neither Presidents Lincoln, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, Harrison nor McKinley ever vetoed a single pension bill. In his entire eight years General Grant, the great soldier, withheld his signature only five times from private pension bills. Contrast this record of 28 Republican years with the only eight years the Democrats have had since Buchanan—for during his two terms President Grover Cleveland vetoed 524 pension bills. Cleveland's administration acted in complete keeping with his own warfare upon the pension list.

Hoke Smithism means to the American soldier persistent warfare upon his welfare, and in that antagonism Mr. Smith, as is now clearly known, only obeyed orders. In consequence of it, however, during Cleveland's first year of his second term, 68½ per cent of all pension claims adjudicated were rejected, or 84,562 out of 123,647. During the first two years of this Democratic administration the notorious Hoke Smith board of revision dropped 8,694 pensioners from the rolls, and reduced 23,702 pensions, the vast majority for bitterly unjust reasons, as was evident in every community where cases occurred of this kind.

Cleveland's pension commissioner reported for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, the issuance of 96,337 pension certificates, and the rejection of 103,355 claims of all kinds. These are his own official figures. How magnificently they verify and attest the depth and strength of the Democratic love for the Union soldiers!

Contrast, with these rejections of pension claims, the dropping of pensioners and the decrease in their rates of pension, by the last Democratic administration, the fact that from April 1, 1897, to June 30, 1900, under McKinley's commissioner of pensions, Hon. Henry Clay Evans of Tennessee, more than 16,000 names of pensioners dropped by previous administrations were restored to the rolls, and are now receiving $2,100,000 annually. During the past fiscal year alone 4,352 such names were restored to the rolls. This contrast is even more strongly shown by the fact that while in Cleveland's three years—1894, 1895 and 1896—only 118,644 original pensions were allowed during the entire three years; in McKinley's three corresponding years the number was 22,000 greater.

In Cleveland's last year only 33,749 original claims were filed, for the pensioners had got tired of being thrown down. But when McKinley came in the claims that had been held back for four years were rushed into the bureau, and in one year 61,613 original claims, and 226,051 claims in all, were piled in upon Commissioner Evans. In his first three months he disposed of 30,538 claims, or half as many as the Democratic commissioner got rid of in nine months preceding. With all this increase in claims, and all the business growing out of the Spanish war, the pension bureau under McKinley has gained upon its work by 200,000 cases within the past two years, so that applicants stand a better chance than ever before of having their matters disposed of promptly.

In the fiscal year just ended the pension payments were near $140,000,000 while in Cleveland's first year the pension payments were $17,000,000 less than in Harrison's last year just before it.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1900, there were allowed 40,637 new pensions alone. Despite a death rate of about 35,000 soldier pensioner every year, the total number of pensioners is now about a round 1,000,000, or 25,000 increase under McKinley and Evans over the number that Cleveland left upon the rolls.

The pension payments last year were over $20,000,000 more than in either of Grant's first or second terms and about as much as the entire four years under President Hayes—facts that show the growth of the pension benefaction. The total pension payments since 1866 will exceed $2,400,000,000, an amount without parallel in the world's history.

In addition to all that has been done, the present Republican congress enacted three important amendments to the pension laws. That of April 18, 1900, provides pensions for the Spanish war, even though the beneficiaries may have been southern soldiers, thus practically confirming in the laws the truth that the Union is at last fully reunited. The act of April 23, 1900, makes ample additional provision for pensioners of the war with Mexico. The act of May 9, 1900, known as "the Grand Army bill," makes even more liberal the great Republican law of June 27, 1890, and is expected to add thousands to the pension rolls. Section third of this act, upon the recommendation of Commissioner Evans, approved both by Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock and President McKinley, is alone expected to add to the benefits of soldiers' widows about $3,500,000 every year, and to include in its generosity 35,000 to 40,000 widows of our soldiers.

Upon these records the Republican party rightfully rests its claim upon the generosity and support of every soldier with a particle of gratitude in his heart, and every friend of such soldier, particularly when considered in contrast with what the Democratic party when in power has done for the soldiers, and its continued obstruction to every endeavor to secure full justice from the United States for its defenders.

AS TO POLYGAMY.

When the Mormon church, in its fight for "the twin relic," polygamy, contended that congress violated the constitution by its hostile legislation, because congress had no right to impair the safeguards which protect the civil rights of every citizen, whether in state or territory, the supreme court held that the power of congress over the territories was absolute; that congress could make valid acts of the territory void and void acts valid. It is doctrine so clearly defined by the highest court that Bryan opposes. Is he ignorant or willful?

Four years ago even Bryan would not have expected that this country would be able to lend money to the world; in fact, he declared that if he was defeated the people would be getting poorer and poorer. He was defeated all right, and now the American loan of millions to the English government has been followed by one of $20,000,000 to the German government, and that by $10,000,000 to Sweden.

TO POPULAR VOTE.

Quay Willing to Submit Senatorship.

TO ELIMINATE THE BIG CITIES.

Says if Opponents Fear Fraud, Why Not Leave Out Philadelphia and Pittsburg. Republicans Willing to Accept a Guffey Election Law.

West Chester, Pa., Oct. 2.—Ex-U. S. Senator Quay made the first of what is to be a series of speeches throughout the state of Pennsylvania in favor of the election of McKinley and Roosevelt and those candidates for the state legislature favorable to that faction of the Republican party recognizing Mr. Quay as its leader. His speech was made before a large crowd and was listened to attentively.

Mr. Quay's speech was largely devoted to state issues and he severely criticised the efforts of the Democrats and anti-Quay Republicans to effect the success of a fusion movement.

Referring to the United States senatorship Mr. Quay said he was not a candidate in the ordinary acceptance of the term. "The Republican state convention," he said, "insisted upon the presentation of my candidacy to the people and I submitted with some reluctance to their judgment. To me that high office is no longer attractive. Its duties have occupied the last 12 years of my life, and they were exceedingly vexatious and laborious. My career, as you all know, has not been exactly pleasant sailing upon summer seas, and advancing years admonish me that if peace and recreation are to ever find me, in the course of nature they must come very soon."

"If the choice of the Republicans of Pennsylvania should fall upon another their judgment will be greeted by me, if not with satisfaction, at least with relief. If the issue could be presented to a popular vote of the Republicans of the state at the ensuing election, that course would tend very largely to subdue the ill temper now manifest in certain distinguished quarters and would serve as a lightning rod for our Republican local legislative and congressional tickets."

Mr. Quay, in speaking of submitting his name to a popular vote, said of those opposed to him: "If they are fearful of fraud in the great centers of population the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny may be eliminated from the canvass. This seems to me to be a fair proposition, approximating the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people."

Touching the subject of a substitution for the present law, he said: "Without pretending to control results I believe I am able to say that Mr. Guffey, who initiated the proposition of a new law, may frame any fair statute which is a manifest improvement over the present one and the Republican organization will aid its passage. We will repeal for him the Baker law and substitute for it the Guffey law and the legislative action will, I have no doubt, be approved by the executive who sits beside me."

"Mr. Guffey will, however, tolerate only fusion to accomplish this reform. The results anticipated he gave to the public in a carefully prepared interview. He expects to reduce the McKinley majority very largely in the state; to increase the Democratic representation in the legislature from 87 to 100; to hold all the congressional districts now represented by Democrats; to procure a ballot reform law and an apportionment which will largely increase the present legitimate Democratic representation in congress and to defeat the election of Mr. Quay to the senate."

In conclusion Mr. Quay made an appeal for the election of McKinley and Roosevelt, expressing the opinion that "the best state of the union will give the best majority in all the union for the re-election of the best president God has vouchsafed to the union since the death of Lincoln."

Governor Stone followed Senator Quay in an eloquent endorsement of the McKinley administration and the candidacy of Mr. Quay for United States senator. He criticised the fusion movement and urged loyal support to all caucus nominees.

BRYAN SPOKE IN MINNESOTA.

He and Governor Lind Celebrated Their Wedding Anniversaries.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 2.—Mr. Bryan traversed what are known as the Pine Barrens and the Scrub Oak portion of Minnesota, reaching the agricultural part of the state north of this city. He made the first speech at West Superior. He immediately crossed the river to Duluth and starting with an hour speech there he made speeches at eight other places on the way, which, together with the speech at Duluth and Superior and those made last night in this city, made an even dozen speeches for the day. Four of the speeches averaged an hour in duration and the remaining eight 15 minutes each, making about six hours of speechmaking all told for the day. He was accompanied throughout the day by Governor Lind and others.

It was the sixteenth anniversary of Mr. Bryan's marriage, and, by a strange coincidence, the twenty-first anniversary of Governor Lind's marriage. They celebrated with a Poland water dinner.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 2.—The auditorium in which Mr. Bryan spoke here was crowded to the very dome. It is a large building said to hold 8,000 people. Before proceeding with his speech Mr. Bryan was presented with a life of Abraham Lincoln by F. L. McGhee, a colored man, on behalf of the Colored Men's league.

In responding to this presentation Mr. Bryan eulogized Lincoln and congratulated Mr. McGhee upon the advancement made by his people and said he was glad to know that so many of them are determined to study public questions and vote according to their convictions.

TWO MESSAGES

From the Far East to the American People.

Hon. John Barrett, former minister of the United States to Siam, is now making speeches in the Republican campaign. In the opening one in New York city, he riveted the attention of his immense audience by two messages which he brought from the far east. The first of these is from the King of Siam, who said:

"Go back to the American people and tell them that I, an Asiatic monarch, speaking almost the same language as the Filipinos, having the same blood in my veins, and knowing the hopes and impulses of the people of Asia—go back and tell them that I welcome America to the Philippines and the far east, as a great and good power."

The Siamese monarch is one of the greatest statesmen of the orient, the ruler over millions of people, whose kingdom is as prosperous as is Japan. Important as this message is to the American people, the second one brought by Mr. Barrett surpasses it, because of the mournful interest which surrounds it. It is a message from a Nebraska colonel, but not one like Colonel Bryan. It is from the dead Colonel Stotsenburg. It was his regiment which was on picket duty when the Filipino outbreak of February, 1899, occurred. It was one of his men, a resident of Lincoln, who fired the first shot when the insurgents tried to break through our lines. Colonel Stotsenburg led a charge against the rebels and fell mortally wounded. As he lay there, the death dew on his pale brow, realizing that the end had come, he said:

"Yes, boys, you can tell the American people that I, as colonel in command, knowing all the incidents, say that the responsibility for this trouble does not rest on the American army nor on the American government. Tell them that I said with dying breath, that we were deliberately fired on by enemies of the United States, and that there should be no end of the conflict except their unconditional surrender."

Contrast these words of the dying Nebraska hero with those of that other Nebraska colonel, whose military experience was in a camp, and who declares that if he should be elected president of the United States, he would summon congress in extra session to offer what would be a virtual surrender to these rebels in arms against the American government.

Democrats Won't Oppose Republicans.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 2.—The Democratic state committee decided not to oppose the election of the Republican candidate for chief justice and associate justice.

To Confer About Armor.

Washington, Oct. 2.—It is expected that representatives of the various armor producing concerns will be here today to confer with Secretary Long concerning the armor required for the warships in course of construction.

Superior Court Reconvened.

Philadelphia, Oct. 2.—The superior court reconvened in this city for winter and fall term. No opinions or judgments were handed down.

BRYAN ON GOLD STANDARD.

"If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."

This language was used by Hon. William Jennings Bryan in a speech at Knoxville, Tenn., on September 16, 1896.

CONNECTICUT.

The electoral vote of Connecticut will be counted for the Republican party. Democratic claims have gone glimmering. "Pile up the votes," is the order of the day. Bury Bryanism and disaster so deep that they will never again be resurrected in the political arena.

NEBRASKA.

Bryan is badly scared regarding Nebraska. The farmers and the rural districts are going back on the agent of the silver trust. The agriculturalists love good money and good prices for their products. The Republicans have good grounds for believing that they can carry Bryan's home state. Let the good work go on.

AMONG THE MINERS.

Mitchell, the leader of the miners in the anthracite region, says: "It is the operators turn now, and I am waiting for them to move. Great interests are at stake. In the name of humanity, every effort at conciliation and a speedy settlement of the strike should be made by workmen and employers. Arbitration should settle the struggle."

THE SABBATH DAY.

The command has come to keep it holy, and from a commander who will not be trifled with. The man who disobeys may imagine that he can do so with impunity and that punishment will not ensue. He may apparently prosper for years; but punishment will come to the transgressor, here and hereafter. There is no escape; there can be no hedging, no dodging. "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, saith the Lord."

LOAFING.

Again let us commend Chief T. V. Thompson for the order forbidding "loafing and loitering and the use of profanity in public places." It is a much needed feature, and its rigid enforcement will make many friends for our officials. Our conservative and respectable citizens have been terribly annoyed by toughs, roughs and blackguards along this line. If you have any desire to be classed with this tough element, count yourself in and walk chalk with the rest of the bums.

READ BARRETT.

Read the speech of Minister Barrett as to the life and character of Don Emilio Aguinaldo, and as to who is responsible for the war with the insurgents in the Philippines. The article appears in today's issue. Barrett knows what he is talking about. He talks the Filipino almost as well as he does the English language, lived for long years among the Asiatics, knows their characteristics fully, was a personal acquaintance of General Lawton and Colonel Stotzenberg, served in the field with them and can speak from the book of experience. Read his speech.

THE FULL DINNER PAIL.

William Jennings Bryan attempts to answer the "full dinner pail" argument of the Republican administration, and meekly says that it is an insult to the toiler to say that his brain and heart can be reached and controlled through his stomach or appetite. And so it is an insult to the toiler to have stated to him that he has a sure thing for years to come in the way of home comforts for wife and children, while he daily wends his way to his occupation with a dinner pail filled with the good things of life, the use of which will surely give him comfort, strength, brawn, and the power to do his work in a comparatively easy manner. Say, Billy Buncombe Bryan, are you aware of the fact that you are talking through your hat? Do you know that, so far as the food or pail question is concerned, the Republican party has given and promises to give a dinner pail filled with the substantial and luxuries of this life, while the Democratic party has promised the same and then doled out the thinnest kind of shadow soup?

THESE MARRIAGES WERE FAILURES

Judge Hole Granted a Number of Divorces After Hearing the Sad Stories.

MRS. LAUBSCHER WAS ABUSED

The Court Not Only Gave Her a Divorce but Restored Her Maiden Name.

THREE PETITIONS GRANTED

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Judge Hole opened a session of divorce court yesterday afternoon and for several hours was occupied in listening to the domestic troubles of those in court.

Mrs. Edna B. Laubscher, of Wells-ville, told a story of cruelty to the court on the part of her husband, Lewis Laubscher. As Miss Edna Menough she was married to Lewis Laubscher in March, 1896, and had one child, which died at the age of nine months. She says that within a month after her marriage she discovered that he was a professional gambler and when she would question him after he had stayed out all night he would strike her and kick her, and that on one occasion, a short time before her child was born, he came home drunk and, dragging her from her bed, he kicked her downstairs. On one occasion, she says, he kicked her from her bed and knocked her down, when she lay unconscious for two hours.

Mrs. Laubscher claims that her life was in danger while living with him, and she left him last February and has since been living in Cleveland. The divorce was granted and her maiden name restored.

Mrs. Elizabeth I. Campbell, of Elkton, was given a divorce from Thomas M. Campbell and the control of her two minor children. They were married in 1887 and the grounds of divorce were drinking and neglect of duty.

Gus Knight, of Negley, was legally separated from Nora Knight and will have charge of two minor children. The Knights were married in 1891 in Wampum, Pa., but the wife soon grew tired of domestic duty and would neglect her family and remain away from home for days at a time. On one occasion she returned in an intoxicated condition.

Mrs. Annie M. Herbert was divorced from Coss T. Herbert. Mrs. Herbert now lives in East Liverpool and supports a seven-year-old daughter by working in the pottery. She was married in 1891 in Salineville and was abandoned a few years later in Lisbon.

TO DISSOLVE.

The Hulings Electrical Company, of This City, File an Application in Court.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—The directors of the Huling Electrical company, which was incorporated for the purpose of manufacturing electrical goods and fixtures, made application this morning to dissolve the partnership.

The business of the company has been wholly abandoned during the past four years, and as they own no property and owe no debts, the parties interested want the corporation abandoned.

On account of holiday, Joseph Bros.' store will be closed all day Wednesday.

GOT DAMAGES.

McDaniel Sued for $3 And Received the Sum of 50 Cents.

The case of Henry McDaniel versus Oscar Whitseigle, in which the defendant was alleged to have stolen some apples, for which damages in the sum of $3 was asked, was tried in the court of Justice Carman yesterday and the decision was reserved until 6 o'clock last evening. When that time arrived the justice rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for punitive damage in the sum of 50 cents and the costs in the case.

HOODLUMS

Made Themselves Obnoxious at the Dance and Were Ejected by Officer Hamilton.

The Harris benefit dance held at Columbian park last evening was a complete success, both socially and financially. Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion excepting the conduct of a few drunken hoodlums from the city who annoyed the crowd until Officer Hamilton appeared. They were hustled out on the hillside, where they remained the entire evening.

LOAFERS

Will Receive Their Just Deserts at the Hands of the East End Police.

The authorities in East End state they have several places where the cards recently issued by Chief Thompson in reference to loafing and loitering may be placed to a very great advantage.

There are a few corners in that neighborhood where men and boys are in the habit of congregating nightly, and the language they use is anything but elevating.

SOUTH SIDE.

GOOD BUSINESS.

The Receipts for the Chester Post-Office Were About the Same As Last Month.

The Chester postoffice last month cancelled $49 31 worth of stamps, sold stamps to the amount of $65 44; received 12 special delivery letters and dispatched 27 registered letters.

Postmaster O. O. Allison reports that the office barely held its own during September, and the receipts for the month were about the average.

Among the Sick.

Samuel Swearingen, who resides in the country south of town, is still very ill, and little hope is entertained for his recovery.

Mrs. Joseph Smith, of Carolina avenue, is very ill.

John Brown, of near Hookstown, is ill with typhoid fever.

His Buggy Broke.

John Nelson, of near Georgetown, was driving to Chester this morning in company with his daughter, and when near the Chester livery the buggy struck a stone, breaking the front wheel. Nelson indulged in some tall swearing, which seemed to relieve the man's feelings. They will return home by rail.

Talk of That Cross Country Road Has Struck Lisbon With a Vengeance.

Lisbon, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Harry G. Folts, of Chicago, applied to the Lisbon council last evening for an ordinance to grant permission to construct street railway lines through this city.

Folts is prominently identified with Chicago parties who have been investigating the West Point coal fields during the past year.

He asks that a franchise be given authorizing them to maintain the road for 25 years.

A SMALL FIRE AT HARKER'S POTTERY.

The roof on the new kiln shed at the Harker pottery caught fire this afternoon and the department was called out. The blaze was extinguished by the workmen before it did much damage.

Unique in Their Alignment.

The highest of the Tennessee mountains is the Fuka range, and its highest peak is Rattlesnake, the giant that stands above the Cherokee Indian reservation over 7,000 feet. Twenty-two peaks measure about 6,000 feet. A remarkable fact is that some of these peaks, standing directly opposite each other, measure exactly the same height, while others come within a few feet of a common height.—Chicago Record.

A MEASURE OF MERIT.

East Liverpool Citizens Should Weigh Well This Evidence.

Proof of merit lies in the evidence. Convincing evidence in East Liverpool.

Is not the testimony of strangers; But the indorsement of East Liverpool people.

That's the kind of proof given here. The statement of an East Liverpool citizen:

Mrs. Edward Orr, of 220 Thompson street, says: "My sister, Mrs. Borland, of Pittsburg, while visiting us, recommended Doan's Kidney Pills so highly that I was induced to try them. I had severe attacks of kidney complaint; some times I was so bad I could not get up; many times my neighbors came and found me lying on the lounge suffering, when I intended to do a big day's work. I was so miserable I could do nothing. After my sister told me of the pills I made up my mind to try them and got a box at the W. & W. pharmacy. They did just what they claimed they would do—cured me sound and well in a few days. My little girl was feeling poorly and had a sallow complexion for some time. I gave her a few doses and after the treatment she felt splendidly."

OVER IN THE PHILIPPINES

Minister Barrett Tells His Experience With the Tricky Aguinaldo.

THE FILIPINOS ARE MISLED

Circulars of an Infamous Nature Spread Broadcast Among the Natives.

DEMOCRACY DID THE DEED

[We promised to give our East Liverpool readers the story of Aguinaldo and his followers, as related to an immense audience at the opera house at Steubenville on Saturday night last, by Minister Barrett, late representative from the United States to the court of Siam, and here it is:]

Minister Barrett is a man of slender build, quick in movement and motion, a ready and pleasing talker, and he won the full attention of his hearers from the start and held it to the finish. He first made himself solid with the ladies of his audience by a neat and graceful tribute to them, receiving generous applause for his effort; then he brought down the house with a description of Roosevelt as soldier and statesman, and set the audience wild with his portraiture of McKinley, "the noblest Roman of them all." Barrett said in part:

"I know Aguinaldo well, and he in turn asserts that he knows me well. I am fully conversant with the state of affairs in the Philippines, and especially in the island of Luzon, and I can truthfully say that no loyal or true American has the shadow of right to advocate the cause of Aguinaldo or his misguided followers. And I can further say that any Democrat who understands fully the question of the Philippines ought to be heartily ashamed of himself if he backs up Atkinson, Bryan and such men in their antagonism to our soldiers and their advocacy of the cause of the insurgents.

"As you are no doubt aware, I have had the honor of occupying the position of minister to Siam. Do not imagine for a moment that civilization does not exist in Siam. They have in that country as fine thoroughfares and as fine public buildings as you will find anywhere in the United States, while the monarch in control is a man of rare intelligence. In conversation with him he said:

"Mr. Minister, I am glad to greet you, as the representative of a great nation, in our eastern country. We know much of the United States of America, and we are glad to know that your people will become better acquainted with Asiatic customs and manners. We have nothing to fear from a great nation of liberty loving people."

"The point I desire to impress upon your minds is the plain truth that Aguinaldo and his misguided followers have nothing to fear from the liberty loving people of the United States, under the liberal condition of affairs as existing under a Republican administration, with President William McKinley at the head of that administration.

"Democracy has much to answer for in misleading the Filipinos, and I do not believe that a single drop of American blood would have been shed by the insurgents at Manila and in the surrounding country, had not the natives been misled by such men as Aguinaldo, Agoncillo and other prominent Filipinos, backed and sustained by such men as Atkinson, Bryan and other Democratic representatives on this side of the Pacific, the latter influenced by no other motives than the making and manufacturing of political capital for the present presidential campaign.

"In my residence in the Filipino islands I found it necessary to learn the language of the native Filipinos in and around Manila, and I talk their language now almost as readily as I do English. Aguinaldo is an educated man, brainy and cunning, a man of overwhelming ambition. He can and does love, very dearly, his wife and children; and yet, such is his ambition, he determined to murder his own brother, simply because he believed that that brother stood in the way of his ambitious projects; and he would have carried his project into execution had not terrible influences been brought to bear upon him. He did have murdered some of his best and bravest officers, simply because he was jealous of them and because they expressed opinions opposed to those he held and advocated.

"Is Aguinaldo a smart man? Yes, as smart and keen as they make them. Place him in New York city and give him a chance in the field of politics and he would rob Croker of his prestige and power and steal his robes of office.

"Is he a second Washington? I should say not. He is the essence of treachery and untruthfulness. He is an eastern diplomat—a finished liar. I personally know that, at a great banquet given in Manila years ago he toasted the queen of Spain and the boy king and vowed and swore loyalty and fealty and truth to his sovereign, and at that very moment he was busily engaged in hatching the eggs of treason and assassination.

"I personally know and loved General Lawton, the hero par excellence of the Philippine war. You know the particulars of his death. You know that he felt and said American sympathizers would be responsible for his death, in case he was killed by a bullet from a Filipino rifle; and the loyal and true men of the nation echo Lawton's statement. I was with the heroic Colonel Stotzenberg when he received his death wound, and with his head upon my knee, in his last moments of life he echoed the sentiment expressed by General Lawton, and held American sympathizers responsible for his blood and the blood of our heroic officers and men who went down to death from wounds inflicted by weapons in the hands of the insurgents.

"When victory crowned our arms around Manila and we advanced into the interior, we captured town after town, the enemy fleeing from the wrath to come. One fine looking native woman, knowing me by sight, advanced to my side, and, drawing a paper from her bosom, tearfully asked me if the contents printed there were true. It was a paper printed in the native language, with illustrations vile beyond description, and display lines printed beneath the cuts, telling the natives, men and women, to resist the Americans to the death, asserting that the American soldiers would take the daughters of the people as mistresses and make slaves of the sons. The name of Don Emilio Aguinaldo was signed to this precious document, as well as the names of other prominent and powerful personages; and these documents were printed by the tens of thousands and distributed all over the country, in common with documents from this side of the water, sent over to Aguinaldo and translated and published in the Philippine language. I do not believe that there would have been any outbreak at Manila on the part of the Filipinos had it not been for the aid and comfort and assistance rendered them by cunning and unscrupulous politicians in the United States; and the loyal American voters will hold them responsible for their cowardly work, and fittingly answer them at the polls in the coming November election. Good night."

TRENTVALE STREET.

Property Owners Visit the News Review And Make Warm Protest.

Editor News Review—We of Trentvale street have been given the cold shoulder by our councilmanic body, and we don't like the medicine they have given us. We had the assurance that we should have a square and fair deal, in common with other thoroughfares, and we claim that this promise has been broken. The consent of property owners was gained, resolution passed, ordinance duly drawn up, passed and printed, and then we were quietly dumped into the mud, while the Calcutta road will be graded and paved. We want this matter remedied, simply because we have justice and right upon our side; and if our members of council will not pay attention to a just and fair plea, they are not fit to hold office. We believe that those who voted against the measure did not fully understand the circumstances in detail, and we appeal to them, if possible, to remedy the evil perpetrated against us. CITIZENS.

The Governor Addressed Large Number of People.

McCook, Neb., Oct. 2.—Governor Roosevelt's first day in Nebraska may be regarded as successful, though the morning started out wet and chilly and the audiences as a necessity were small. Thirteen speeches were made during the journey and last night. Probably 30,000 or 40,000 people were addressed during the day. Governor Roosevelt's special train remained at McCook until late in the night, when it pulled out for North Platte. Today's journey, it was expected, will cover a distance of 600 miles and will include within that distance 11 speeches. Tonight a journey will be made to Broken Bow, which, it is expected, will be reached tomorrow morning.

Shamrocks Found That South Sides Were Not Easy and Are Now Minus $50.

WERE ALSO SHY FIVE RUNS

Rooters Were With Southside and the Shamrocks Went Away Up In the Air.

SOME PLAYERS TALKED FIGHT

The Shamrock base ball team yesterday afternoon undertook the somewhat difficult feat of making two runs to their opponents one, and when the game ended they were just five runs shy needed to defeat the Southside club.

The game was by far the most exciting played on the Rock Springs grounds this year, as it was for $50 a side and a large number of side bets had been made.

The rooters played no small part in the contest, and out of the 200 people who saw the game, at least 150 were rooting for the Southside club and doing it with a vengeance. When their favorites made runs, hats went up in the air and so did the Shamrocks. Everybody yelled, and while there was not much ball playing on either side there was plenty of enthusiasm.

One decision of the umpire, when he called Boulton out at home in the fifth, pretty near ended in a fight. The Shamrocks clustered around him like bees and he was pushed all over the field. He changed his decision and then defied Bob Webb to come out in the diamond and fight with him. Micky Lynch also became obstreperous and wanted to fight with Mackall because the latter player blocked Godwin at second base. Mackall was willing, but friends interfered and the players agreed to meet after the game. They haven't met yet. McNicol was excited and wanted to say that the game should go on even if it was dark at the fifth inning, as he wanted a longer run for his money. Wood Bevington waved dollar bills in the air and bet on the runs each inning. Lyle Ashbaugh was so sure the Shamrocks would win he bet they would beat the Southsides three to one.

Even Bobby Smurthwaite lost his head and made two bad errors, which meant runs. McShane also took a hand and threw the ball to the hill in an effort to catch a player off second base. It only cost two runs.

A detail of the wonderful game is as follows:

Shamrocks went to bat and McNicol hit to Mackall at third. Mackall booted the ball around and McNicol was safe. He proceeded to steal second and came home on a passed ball. Webb hit to Mackall and Mackall again made an error. He stole second and came home on a hit by Davis. Davis stole second and came home on a passed ball. Barker drew a base on balls and got to third on passed balls. Tried to come home on the same thing, but was thrown out at the plate. Lynch went out from Winters to Gallagher. Godwin got to first on an error by Mackall and came home on a passed ball. Smurthwaite reached first on an error by Mackall, stole second and tried to come home on a passed ball, but was thrown out.

The inning closed with Shamrock stock away up and the man with the dollar bills shouting that he would bet $1 to 75 cents that the Southsides wouldn't score.

Hill opened with a three-bagger to the hill. Winters hit safe, scoring

Hill; Bennett went out to Barker; Mackall drew a base on balls; Wheatley hit safe, scoring Winters; Webb tried to throw home to catch Mackall and threw the ball over Davis' head, and they all scored. Gallagher went out to Godwin and Howard struck out. Southside stock was now good.

In the second Shamrocks made one on an error by Bennett and a hit by McNicol, while the Southsides got a goose egg.

Both clubs were shut out in the third, but the balloon ascended in the fourth.

The Shamrocks made four in the fourth on three bases on balls, three passed balls and a hit by Davis. In this inning Clarke gave an exhibition of how to steal home when the pitcher had the ball. He got out.

These four runs didn't worry Southside a bit. Howard struck out. Hanlon hit to Smurthwaite, who booted the ball; Kinsey hit a salty one to McNicol, who didn't field it clean; a few seconds later McShane threw to Godwin to catch Hanlon off second. He didn't catch him and the ball went to the hill and both runners scored. Hill then made another three-bagger and came home a minute later on an error by McShane, who attempted to catch Winters off first. Winters went to third on the play and ran into Smurthwaite. Some time had to be taken while Winters revived. McShane then decided to quit and Chambers went into the box and Lynch got back in the game. The agony was ended by Bennett going out from third to first.

In the fifth Smurthwaite drew a base on balls and Lynch went to bat. There was a large howl, as he had no business back in the game after he had once left it, and the umpire ruled him out and Boulton took his place and signalled his appearance by making a two-base hit and scoring on a blocked ball. The umpire called him out, but the wars and rumors of wars were too much for the umpire and he called him safe. McNicol, Webb and Chambers struck out.

The Southsides went out in one, two, three order, and the great game was over.

WILD TRAIN WRECKED.

Dashed Into a Pittsburg and Western Freight—Three Killed and Six Injured.

Pittsburg, Oct. 2.—Three men were killed and six others injured at Gibsonia. Thirty freight cars were piled high and the track torn up for a quarter of a mile. Fire added to the horror, and the bodies of the three dead men were burned before the rescuers could reach them. It was the most disastrous wreck that ever occurred on the Pittsburg and Western railroad. The casualties are:

The dead:
Thomas O'Hara, of Titusville, who was beating his way to Pittsburg; body caught under the wreckage and burned.

Two unknown tramps, bodies burned in the wreck.

The injured:
Clarence O. Sprague, aged 27, of Bennett, engineer of fast freight train; dislocated shoulder, received by jumping from his engine.

William Kerr, aged 22, of Milwaukee, traveling with O'Hara; scalp wound and bruised about the head and body. Taken to Allegheny General Hospital.

Fireman Blake, of the fast freight; bruised about the body by jumping from the train. Taken to his home.

August Hauch, of Forty-third street, fireman of the fast freight, bruised by jumping from the engine. Went to his home.

Lester L. Green, of Millvale, front brakeman of the fast freight, ankle dislocated by jumping; taken to his home.

J. L. Boyer, brakeman, of Millvale, finger broken and bruised about the body; not serious.

The wreck occurred on a steep grade at Gibsonia. Fast freight No. 92, which was running wild, crashed into the rear end of the local freight, which was standing on the main track at the station.

SCHWAB VISITED CANTON.

He and Senator Penrose Called Upon President McKinley—Stark County Delegation Received.

Canton, O., Oct. 2.—President McKinley received visits from Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania; President Schwab, of the Carnegie company; Former Minister to Siam Barrett, and others. He also received and shook hands with a delegation of about 75 members of the Stark county central committee who marched up to the McKinley yard from their regular meeting to pay their respects.

President Schwab, of the Carnegie company, left without dropping any intimation of what brought him here. Senator Penrose, who came and went with him, said they had met on the train by chance.

Mr. Barrett was on his way to fill a speaking engagement and merely stopped over to talk with the president between trains. There was nothing of special importance considered.

Condemned Dowieite Mobs.
Mansfield, O., Oct. 2.—The Mansfield Ministerial association, comprising pastors of various Protestant churches of the city, held a meeting at the home of Rev. L. G. Battman, pastor of the Christian church and adopted resolutions condemning mobs against Dowieites, also all forms of lawlessness.

Charged With Embezzlement.
Quincy, Ill., Oct. 2.—Captain J. V. Henry, who had just resigned as assistant postmaster, was arrested, charged with the embezzlement of $3,500 of the funds of the National Railway Service Benevolent association.

Senator Beveridge Spoke.
Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 2.—Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, spoke here to a large audience in a tent in Shelly park, the tent in which Bryan spoke two weeks ago. The capacity of the tent was taxed, standing room being at a premium.

John E. Hudson Died Suddenly.
Beverly, Mass., Oct. 2.—John E. Hudson, president of the American Bell Telephone company, died suddenly in the Boston and Maine railroad station at Beverley Farms while waiting for a train.

Prohibitionists Toured In Indiana.
Auburn, Ind., Oct. 2.—The Prohibition special with John G. Woolley and party aboard, which left Chicago, made a total of four stops in the run across Indiana, closing with an evening rally at Auburn.

Colored Scotch Rite Council.
Washington, Oct. 2.—The triennial convocation of the Sovereign Grand Council of the Scottish Rite (colored) was opened at the colored Masonic temple here.

BICYCLE GIRLS

Are apt to overdo their strength. The rivalries of the road, the cheerful companionship, the exhilaration of the swift movement on the machine, all tend to make a woman unconsciously overtax herself. The results are often serious, and may affect the whole future of wifehood and motherhood.

Every woman who is conscious of feminine irregularities or disorders from strain or any other cause, should begin at once the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It promptly corrects all female irregularity dries the drains which are so debilitating, and tones the nervous system. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"I had falling of internal organs and had to go to bed every month; had irregular monthly periods which would sometimes last ten or twelve days," writes Mrs. Alice L. Holmes, of Coalspring St., Uniontown, Pa. "Had also indigestion so bad that I could not eat anything hardly. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me. I took three bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and one of the 'Golden Medical Discovery.'"

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence private. Address, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
